FOR GOVERNOR, H. A. MUHLENBERG.

MR. CLAY AND THE TARIFF.—The editor of the cellent health. Post is quite unfortunate in copying our remarks in October 1843, in reference to Mr Clay's letter to Dr Bronson. We remarked, then, 'His [Mr Clay's] opinion in brief is, that all the revenue necessary to an ties, as will afford, incidentally, reasonable protection to national interests.' Such was our belief of Mr Clay's opinion, then, and such is our belief yet.

of a revenue Tariff, and that when the means necessary to defray the expenses of Government, can be had any peculiar love for whiggery and we don't be procured from any other source, even this incidental lieve that even a nomination for Senator would induce prolection must be given up. Such is the reasonable Mr Editor, could you not give us some rich extructs infegence from the Bronson letter, and the editor of the from Mr K's speeches against whiggery, made at Wilkinsburg and other places last fall, while opposing pinion as when he wrote that letter.

The editor further remarks: "It was this very letter of Mr Clay's to Dr Bronson which convinced us that Mr Clay was sound on the Tariff. Let these principles be carried out, and we never shall want for sufficient protection." Now, what principles does Mr Clay lay down in the Now, what principles does Mr Clay lay down in the received full files of Havana papers, besides our correlation which convinced the Gazette that he was sound respondence, up to the 4th last.
