Che Daily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA. TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1844. ALLEGHENY CITY.-The people of this interesting and prosperous town are in fine spirits, and seem ally classed with the partial damage to the Aque duct. The water has ocen removed from that structure in order to its immediate and thorough repair, and in the meantime, boats are now loading and receiv inff freights at the temporary warehouses along the canal in our sister city. The Alleghenians look for great results to their town from the total failure of the Aqueduct, an event which some of them confidently predicted. To show the lively interest they take in the matter, one of their prominent citizens assured us yesterday, that "every creak in the Aqueduct made property rise in Allegheny city," Well, we must submit with what grace we can, or if we should be compelled to loss the canal trade for want of a trunk to carry the water across the river, and if Pittsburgh can't have it we should as lief see Allegheny enjoy it as any place The attention of Capitalists, Lumbermen and Mechanics is invited to the advertisement in this day's paper of the sale of Lots in the tewn of Ridgeway, the seat of justice for the new county of Elk. This town is within the mineral region, on the Clarion River, which is navigable, and in a very few years must be an important place, as the depot for extensive iron works in the vicinity, and manufacturing of ali The trade of the Allegheny and its navigable tributaries is becoming too important an ite.n in the trade of Pittsburgh to pass without notice. While the varithe Allegheny all centres here, and as the country is opened above must necessarily increase—it cannot be taken away; while the continued improvements in the steam boat and keel navigation on the Allegheny river is opening new avenues of trade for Pittsburgh manufactures and western productions. The iron and lumber districts on the west branch of the Susquehanna will soon obtain all their supplies from here-Provisions, such as Pork, Bacon, and Flour, and Molasses, Sugar and Coffee can be shipped cheaper from works West, take back the goods in returg. tiful personation of Hamlet. more beautiful and finished acting has never been witnessed in this city, and we are quite certain that the DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION. The Democratic Committee of Correspondence for the county of Allegheny met, pursuant to the call of the Chairman, at the house of H. Cassiday, on Saturday the 26th May, 1844: when Resolved, That a County Convention be called to meet at the new Court House in the city of Pittsburgh, on Wednesday the 19th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a County Ticket, to be supported by the Democratic citizens at the ensuing October In pursuance of the foregoing resolution, the Democratic citizens of the various Townships. Districts and Boroughs in the county, are requested to meet at their usual places on Saturday the 15th June next, and elect each two delegates to meet in County Convention on Wednesday the 19th June. The meetings in the various Wards, Townships and Boroughs of Birmingham, Lawrenceville and Sharpsburgh, will be held between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock, P. THE success this line has met with, vince it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" number of Roats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Bal timore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days. The superiority and advantages of the Portable Beat System overevery other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any com dize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiv ing or advancing charges, &c.

All communications to the following Agents will be promptly attended to CHARLES A. McANULTY.
