

In reply, the Baron hints that I must be conscious of having written Colonel Plinth a letter.

Colonel Plinth uttered an exclamation of bitter contempt, and looked towards the door.

Another moment the door was torn asunder. Having never before attempted an anonymous letter, and seeing under the influence of confirmed habit, I had concluded the fact of my writing, in my diary, the names of the persons to whom I had written.

The foregoing papers were drawn up and sent to him in Kentucky, by Major Moccasin, a few hours after Colonel Plinth and Baron Cabox had quitted the city.

After considerable research, we have discovered two announcements in the public press, which form reliable appendages to Major Moccasin's document.

Yesterday, at his own residence in Wimpole street, by special license, Colonel Plinth, K. C. B., to Hubert Louis M. M., a native of Mississippi.

The lady remaining in a slight—having a few hours before exchanged shots—both of which took effect with Major Moccasin.

No. II.

The lady tongue of fame reports that a gallant Major, who served with distinction, and lost an arm, led to the altar the dashing officer and sole legatee of a brave and efficient brother officer, who recently died at Chetumal.

A mutual attachment is supposed to have been long in existence; for the bridegroom felt a pang at the lady's account, and the bridegroom's mother, on the very morning of the marriage, pecuniary motives may perhaps have influenced the fair one to give her hand on that occasion to the gallant Major's more fortunate rival.

The latter end of May has reversed the promise of the beginning. The Albany Argus says—

On Tuesday evening there was a hard frost in this vicinity, which is feared, has destroyed the corn crop, and has done much damage to the fruit.

The yellow fever was raging at Vera Cruz on the 5th inst.

We learn from the Georgetown Advocate that a caucus of the delegates to the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

DEATH OF A NAVAL OFFICER.—Capt. Dorset of the ship "Saratoga," died at Boston, April 16th, at the age of 67 years.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE AND POLITICS.

Mr. Editor.—In common with many other friends of the Temperance cause, I regret to witness the attempt to bring the cause before the public mind by means of a better observance of the Sabbath.

It is time for us to have a more serious and earnest consideration of the subject, and to look down at the work we are doing, and to see if we are not doing it in a way that will bring us into disrepute.

CONGRESS.

The Senate, to-day, after passing upon several private bills, took up the resolution fixing the 17th of June for the adjournment of the present session of Congress.

It is time for us to have a more serious and earnest consideration of the subject, and to look down at the work we are doing, and to see if we are not doing it in a way that will bring us into disrepute.

INTELLIGENCE FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The yellow fever was raging at Vera Cruz on the 5th inst.

We learn from the Georgetown Advocate that a caucus of the delegates to the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

DEATH OF A NAVAL OFFICER.—Capt. Dorset of the ship "Saratoga," died at Boston, April 16th, at the age of 67 years.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE AND POLITICS.

Mr. Editor.—In common with many other friends of the Temperance cause, I regret to witness the attempt to bring the cause before the public mind by means of a better observance of the Sabbath.

It is time for us to have a more serious and earnest consideration of the subject, and to look down at the work we are doing, and to see if we are not doing it in a way that will bring us into disrepute.

CONGRESS.

The Senate, to-day, after passing upon several private bills, took up the resolution fixing the 17th of June for the adjournment of the present session of Congress.

It is time for us to have a more serious and earnest consideration of the subject, and to look down at the work we are doing, and to see if we are not doing it in a way that will bring us into disrepute.

INTELLIGENCE FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The yellow fever was raging at Vera Cruz on the 5th inst.

We learn from the Georgetown Advocate that a caucus of the delegates to the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

DEATH OF A NAVAL OFFICER.—Capt. Dorset of the ship "Saratoga," died at Boston, April 16th, at the age of 67 years.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE AND POLITICS.

Mr. Editor.—In common with many other friends of the Temperance cause, I regret to witness the attempt to bring the cause before the public mind by means of a better observance of the Sabbath.

It is time for us to have a more serious and earnest consideration of the subject, and to look down at the work we are doing, and to see if we are not doing it in a way that will bring us into disrepute.

CONGRESS.

The Senate, to-day, after passing upon several private bills, took up the resolution fixing the 17th of June for the adjournment of the present session of Congress.

It is time for us to have a more serious and earnest consideration of the subject, and to look down at the work we are doing, and to see if we are not doing it in a way that will bring us into disrepute.

INTELLIGENCE FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The yellow fever was raging at Vera Cruz on the 5th inst.

We learn from the Georgetown Advocate that a caucus of the delegates to the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

Mr. McKim, in his address, alluded to the fact that the Democratic Convention, to meet in Baltimore on the 27th inst., was held in Washington, on Monday.

The proceedings were attended by a large number of the delegates, and were presided over by Mr. J. M. McKim, of New York.

IRON CITY LINE.

FOR SALE.

DELAWARE CANAL COMPANY.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.