Qur friends, Messrs Rogens & SHERLOCK, of Cincinnati, will accept our acknowledgements for the hun die of New Orleans papers they kindly sent us. Mr.S. G. ISHAM, of the Little Ben, has likewise placed us under obligations for Ciscinnati papers.

· CATHOLIC MAGAZINE AND MONTHLY REVIEW .-We have received the June number of this excellent Magazine. It is filled, as usual, with matters of much interest to readers of every class. MR. SILSBEE -- We understand that this excellent actor will commence a short engagement at our Theatre on Thursday. His merits, as an actor, are equalled by but few in the country, and the able manner in which he will be supported by the present talented company, should we think ensure crowded Houses during his engagement

We insert this morning a very interesting biographical skotch of Hon. G. M. DALLAS, which appeared in the Democratic Review of Feb. 1844. It, and the sketch of Gov Polk, which we published yesterday will be inserted in our weekly of Saturday.
