And his conscience—oh! how the old Harry would
Ri tu, &c. Some carious people accused him of vice, And said that his sies were thicker than mice, But the scrapulous degre were rather too nice, And forgot that he loved a "Pair o'dice." Tis written in Prentice's history, flow he met one Marshall, his N-M-E, And fought him, because they could'nt agree-And how Marshall marred his L.E.G. Old John of Rosnoke in the Senate one day, In the heat of debate took occasion to say, A few simple truthe in his own cutting way, Which gave great offence to this demagogue Clay.
Ri tu, &c. "But my shirt tail," quoth Harry, I was but in sport When I kissed the big bible and swore to the Court, Our great Constitution in faith to enprort, And this right of debate shall be quickly cut short. So be called Johnny out, with a face pale and grim,-But John was a fellow so lank and so slim, And smod in his robe so straight and so trim, That the bell pierced his gown, but could'nt find him! "Now Harry," quoth John, as his pistol he drew, "You had malice prepense in your heart it is true, And here's cold lead that would make you feel blue, But I dira not send home such a sinner as you." Thus John of Roznoke was beard to declare, As he fired his ballet up into the air— The life of poor Harry quite willing to spare, The life of poor marry quite more time to prepare.

Ri tu, &c. To run for President Harry contrived, Some two or three times, but so poorly he thrived, (Although to assist him the devil connived,) ist in spite of his 'running" he never arrived! Sir_Since I have been in this city I have used some of oir—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with Infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Chambel county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice of this place, thinks you would probable like an agent to this place, thinks you would probable like an agent to and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your calebrated medicine. Should you commission fits he is willing to medicine. Should you commission him he is wrifing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Kacaville county. Tennessee or by land to Grainam & Houston, Tranwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt limit from hid agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great dead of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agents as to hear from you whether you would like an agent as Biuntville, Sullivan County.
