

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS. FOR GOVERNOR, H. A. MUHLENBERG.

Cross Resolutions.—We present with our notice of the resolutions of the Ohio State Convention. They declare in favor of distributing the proceeds of the public lands. This is one of the great issues of the day.

They declare in favor of the one-term principle. To this we have no objection. It is of no importance; it can make nothing of it, for Democrats do not oppose it. They wish, they say, further limitation of the executive power of removing officers and their subordinates.

Some of the Ohio voters are calling them selves Jeffersonian Democrats. We commend to their attention the following opinion expressed by Jefferson of his candidate.

There was a tremendous ratification meeting in Detroit on Tuesday last. GEN. CASS was present and made a stirring speech, pledging himself to the nomination, and declaring his belief that "JAMES K. POLK will be the next President of the United States."

THE REMOVAL OF THE CHOCTAW. FOR THE POST.—I was pleased to see your notice relative to the removal of the Choctaw. You express an opinion that the removal will be given to the Choctaw by the Secretary of War.

CONGRESS. In the Senate, today, Mr. Barren, chairman of the Judiciary committee, reported back the House bill for the election of President and Vice President.

THE GREAT FOOT RACE. The True Sun says—Twenty-five thousand people, Monday, to witness the foot race on the Grand Central Avenue. The race was won by John Smith in 19 minutes.

THE REVENUE.—The receipts of Customs at the port of New York alone, for the first 5 months of 1884, exceeded somewhat more than a half million of dollars against some four millions in each of the two preceding years.

HANDSOME PROFITS.—The Fair held in Baltimore last week, for the benefit of St. Mary's Female Orphan Asylum, yielded a net profit of $1,000.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS IN FRANCE.—There are at this moment in France, (says the Referee)—the ancient land of liberty—twenty-six editors of newspapers confined in prison. Some 1200 journalists are amounting to imprisonment for 184 years and 10 months.

NEW YORK.—At the last accounts the Democrats of New York were making great preparations for their session meeting, which was to take place on Tuesday afternoon. The platform of that meeting said that Mr. Van Buren was opposed to the meeting being held in the city.

THE THREAT TO ASSASSINATE BISHOP HUGHES. The following is the letter to which Bishop Hughes referred in his letter to the Mayor of New York, dated May 9, 1884.
