SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 8, 1844. THEATES.-The bill for this evening is very attractive. With the inimitable SILEBEE in three favorite acters, and the other entertainments, the house ought to be crowded in all quarters. As this is the lest night of Mr Silsbee's engagement, all who can be ansused with first rate delineations of Yankee characters, should not miss visiting the theatre this evening.

A New Business Directory.—Mr. Isaac Har-Ris, who has been our city Historian, and published three Directories of our city some years ago, informs us, that a British Traveler called this week and bought two of his old Directories, and with many other Genelemen expressed his surprise that Pittsburgh has not yearly, or every two years at least, a new directory. This hint, with the recommendation of many gentlemen of business, induces Mr. Harris, provided he is proper ly and suitably encouraged, to go to work and publish early in July, a brief Business Directory, of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City, and the environs, to include alphabetically and order arranged as in his last Directory, the Banks, Insurance and Exchange offices, Officers and Directors-the Post Offices, Stages and Stage lines, and River Trade offices; Law offices. Attornies at Law, Judges and Courts; the Churches and Ministers of the Gospel-Public Schools and Seminaris Book-stores, and Newspaper and Printing offices, and the business generally of the two cities and towns immediately around—the Census, statistics of the Police of the two cities; Census and Government of the U. States, and Pennsylvania, &c. &c., with a great amount of the most useful information for all classes of citizens. Mr. Harris proposes to do it well, in a neat Pamphlet form, at 25 cents a copy, and give Merchants, Manufacturers and Mechanics Dra chance to put in their Cards, at the same extra rates that he charged in his Directory of 1841 and '42. To-morrow or early next week, a Gentleman will call personally on our citizens for their subscriptions and patronage, and several gentlemen have already encouraged him to go ahead wi h his new work by subscribing for a number of extra copies. It will be an excellent work to give the business and business men of all departments and branches of our flourishing city to the world, and to send abroad.

PREACHING. Rev. THOMAS H. STOCKTON will preach on next ath, at 104 o'clock, A M., in the first Methodis Protestant Church in Allegheny city,

Transportation Line, from the United States Partable

This line is composed of twanty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily

The superiority and advantages of the Portable

by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no comnissions for storage, advancing or forwarding.
