R. LEIDY'S Sarsaparilla Blood Pills are applica ble in all cases, whether for Purgatives of Pu rification, They possess all the boasted virtues of other pills, and are additionally efficacious, containing Robinson & cBride, Attorneys at Law. ed in any other pills in existence. They are also different from other pills in composition, being purely regetable, and can be employed at all times, without any danger, and requiring no restraint from occupation wr usual course of living.

Notwithstanding Dr. Leidy now pretended his Blood Pills would core all diseases, relatis not saying too much of them, from the innumerable cures performed by them in every variety and form of disease (cer-tificates of many of which have been published from persons of all denominations, physicians, clergymen, and others) that they seem to be almost universal in their effect; and persons using them for whatever sick ness or disease, may rest assured that they will be found more efficacious than any other pills in existence From the known reputation of Dr. Leidy's Blood Pill, it is necessary to remind the public where they can at all times procure the genuine, as it is attempted to impose other pills, called the 'Blood Pills' upon the public on the reputation of Dr. Leidy's. Be particular and ask for Dr. Leidy's Sarsaparilla Blood Pills and see that the name of N B. in most of man in the civil nutherities, they could not interfere, except on requisition of the Governor of the State to aid the civil power in quelling a riot or an insurrece to aid the civil power in quening a riot or an impuration. From the government of the State, and from the Mayor of the city, he also received answers, stating that they knew of no law forbidding him to display that flag, but entreated him to haul it down, as it gave offence to a large portion of their inhabitants. By his subsequent conduct, it is evident that he rejected the advice, and decided to abide the consequence, by keoping the flag displayed to the public gaze.

The morning rays of the sun of the 17th of March, 1817, blazoned the emblematic flag still flaunting to to the breeze from the main-most head of the ship Hamilton, attracting, as to a central point, from ally parts of the city and suburbs, a vast multitude, who, were congregated on the Levee and adjacent streets.

orthesess, and pistols, and the British Consul, with many English merchants, perambulated the quarters deck; whilst the main and fore-castle decka were filled. with the crew and volunteers, armed with cutlasses, axes, hatchets, harpons, and handspikes A gang of nischievous hoys, among whom were observed a few mischievous boys, among whom were observed a temmen, began to throw brickbats and oyster-shells from the Levee on board the ship. This amonged the crew; they sallied out by the stage, and dispersed these youthers has allied and recommenced the attack in the same way.

Annin the count sallied forth and counted them. This Again the crew sallied forth and routed them. This mode of attack and defence was repeated a number of times, the people quietly looking on as spectators. About midday, a different and more threatening hand of actors made their appearance; and being har-rangued by Captain Pietre Liquet, formerly commanding a privateer during the last war, about 50 of them, headed by the Captain, marched off, and in a short, time returned, armed with cutlasses.
