

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK, OF TENNESSEE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR GOVERNOR, H. A. MUHLENBERG.

CLAY AND A BANK.—While his supporters are twisting like eels, on the U S Bank question, fearing to declare themselves for the measure, and yet grating their teeth against the circumstances which prevent them from expressing their sentiments freely.

Like the poor cat? the adage. Mr. CLAY is firmly planted on the bank project as one that most rise or fall with him.

In addition to the former extracts we have given to show that Mr. CLAY is yet a consistent, unflinching man, we submit the following, from a speech made in Macon, Georgia, a week or two ago.

"He was in favor of a BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. All nations give us the example. Here is another proof, not only of Mr. CLAY's unflinching devotion to the bank project, but of his unflinching devotion to the principle of free trade.

Mr. CLAY will search in vain among foreign nations, for an example of that entire political and religious toleration which is the pride and boast of our country.

We hope that all who have a wholesome dread of foreign "examples" and influence, will ponder well over the argument of Mr. CLAY that we should have a bank, because "all nations give us the example."

Mr. POLK'S POPULARITY.—The principal objection made to Col Polk by the enemies that is unpopular. If this were true, it should give them any pain, and common sense would tell them to keep quiet over the subject, for the democrats would go to work to make him popular.

MAN-WORTHY REBUTED.—We commend the following biting rebuke of the base spirit of subservience which distinguishes the white party to the leaders of this faction, who they shall have glanced at their mirrors, we would like to hear "how they like the picture!"

OUR COURTS.—Messrs Editors.—The decorous and independent course of your Journal, on various exciting questions of public policy, suggests to the writer of this article the propriety of presenting your paper, to the friends of the Union, as a model of the press.

NEW JERSEY CONVENTION.—A Convention to amend the Constitution of the State of New Jersey, is now in session. It proposes many salutary reforms, and we hope that the rights of suffrage may be extended.

Mr. DELAZAR Smith, of Delaware, Smith, as he is sometimes called, had better make haste and get home, for like the ancient and venerable Mr. TUCKER, he will be "too late." Mr. Smith is the editor of the "Mianian," a prominent Tyler paper in Dayton, O.—he went to Baltimore to the Tyler Convention, and since the adjournment of that body he has travelled about making Tyler speeches, with as much perseverance as the "Cook Leg," "Iron." He has now, however, taken the precaution to write home, and the publisher of the "Mianian," has hoisted the Polk and Dallas flag in the absence of specific instructions from his principal.

"THREATENING THE MONSTER."—Resolutions denouncing the incorporation of a national bank, were passed in the House of Representatives on Saturday by a vote of 108 to 60.

A LETTER FROM "BILLY PATTERSON."—We copy the following letter from Mr. W. PATTERSON, the man who was so brutally assaulted some time ago, from the New Orleans Republican. It will be seen that Mr. P. feelingly and delicately alludes to a "gentle but reserved long scene by some anonymous person," which fully accounts for his long silence.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Benton's bill for the annexation of Texas was taken up, to afford an opportunity to the friends of the measure to make their objections known. Mr. McDuffie spoke for an hour in review of the bill, and in doing so he made a number of strong and able remarks.
