Anna to take the command. sold at Eastern prices. june 20-1wdalmw

The Waily Morning Post. PITTSBURGH, PA. MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1844. HARINGTON'S DIORANAS -The Tiwatre has been fitted up for the exhibition of these wonderful works of art, and will open this evening. Many additions have been made to these Dioramas since their exhibition here in 1639, when they were visited and admired by crowds of our citizens. The unobjectionable nature of the performances, and the exceedingly amusing and interesting mechanism of these Dioramas will no doubt attract large audiences. Ar Affray.-A fight took place in the Market or Saturday, about 2003, during which one of the combatants struck the other a blow on the side of the head with a saw he held in his hand, and injured him severely. The wounded man was taken into Dr. Though's, and his wounds dressed. The other was We have received an article from S. W. By the arrival yesterday of the Mexican steamer Petrita, Capt Hinckley, we have Vera Cruz dates up to the 3d inst., and fall files of the Diario del Gobierno of Mexico up to the 24th of May. The Period of Mexico up to the 24th of May. trita brought over Senor J Gonzalez de la Vega, beare indignation against the proposed annexation of Texas. One of the editors says that the republic has the will and the means to resist a movement of the kind—has a great army already disciplined, and the great Santa Anna to take the command.

The Diario of the 19th of May copies a long string of articles against annexation, which have appeared in the journals of the United States which are The following letter, from an occasional correspon dont, we copy. It contains important intelligence.
VERA CRUZ, June 3d, 1844. Princett about two hours since, and by her a vote you the news; but as the Mexican Government has freighed the steamer Petrita, to carry over to your port a bearthful depatches, I take advantage of her to write to you, as she will no doubt reach your city before the Poincett, the latter having to touch at Galves ton. In a few words, Cal. Thompson has not bee processful in his mission, the Mexican Government is nunexed, she, Mexico, will declare war. Nothing further toudd. In baste, yours truly, Z. Verbally we learn that the bearer of despatche spoken of above came ashore at a point down town about I o'clock yesterday, and in season to take the mail hoat for Mobile. El Censor de V-ra Cruz of the 2d inst. contains an advertisement to the effect that the Petritia was to depart the next day for a port in Tubasco; but it would seem that she was afterwards chartered in haste by the officers of the Mexican Gov-, and that the messenger came on with all speed. We know nothing of the nature of his desatches, but they must be important. We shall prohably be able to give further news on the arrival of the Neptunefrom Galveston, as previous to her departure the Poinsett had in all probability arrived at that port .- N. O. Transportation Lines.

MERCHANDIZE AND PRODUCE BETWEEK PITTSBURGH AND PHILADELPHIA, PITTS BURGH AND BALTIMORE,

NEW YORK AND BOSTON. THE PROPRIETORS

PESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Transportation Line, from the United States I octabe Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.
This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.
The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittaburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, in part of each share thus purchased, the said sums to be paid in money, (or in the certificates of loan of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at the option of the number of goods directed to the care of the number of purchases.) undersigned Agents will be promptly attended to.
