MONUMENT TO ATTRON HOLLEY. There was an insume meeting of the Liberty Par-ty at Rechester, NY, on the 18th inst. Part of sheir building was to witness the spectrum of a monument to MERCON HOLLEY, Eaq., of Rochester, who died three years ago, and who was a loading Liberty man. My HotLEY, was also, if we remember right, an original and prominent Antimason. The following ode, wit-ten for the occasion, by W H Burgston Fac for en for the occasion, by W H BURLEIGH, Esq., formerly of our city, was sung. It is eloquent and beau-Yes; fair fame is his: but not the fame For which the conqueror pants and strives, Whose path is tracked through blood and flame, And over countless human lives! His name no armed battallions hail With bugle-shriek or thundering gun; No widows curse him as they wail For slaughtered husbands and for son.

Amid the moral strife alone, He batiled fearlessly and long; And poured with clear, untrembling tone Rebuke upon the hosts of wrong: To break oppression's cruel rod, He dared the perils of the fight, And in the name of Freedom's God Struck boldly for the truth and right !

With faith, whose eye was never dim. The triumph, yct afur, he saw, When bonds smote off from soul and limb, And freed alike by Love and Law, The slave, no more a slave, shall stand Erect; and loud, from sea to sea, tant burst o'er all the land The glorious song of jubilee!

Why should we mourn, thy labor done, That thou art called to thy reward ? Rest, Freedoom's war-worn champion Rest, faithful soldier of the Lord ! For oh! not vainly has thou striven. Through storm, and gloom, and deepest nig lot vainly hath thy life been given For God, for Freedom and the Right! Then as we stand around thy grave, The solemn pledge let all renew, Like thee to toil our land to save From the dark vengeance which is due o, haply, shall the Lord restrain The gathered wrath that waits to break, Or dash it on the bondman's chain,

And spare us for his mercy's sake! WAR-UNDER ARMS. We have seen a letter to a gentleman of this cirr

It was rumored at Mobile, a few nights since, that a negro, while splitting wood that day near Three Mile Creek, and blaspheming terribly, was seized with paralysis. On Moaday, the story grew more marvol-According to this, the earth opened and swallowed the man up to the neck. The passers-by gathered together, brought pickaxes and spades, and attempted to dig him out. But it was useless. As fust as the dirt was thrown out, it settled back, and there the poor fellow stuck, without relief. Su ange as i may seem, this story was believed by one-half of the population, and probably some two or three hundred persons tramped all the way to witness the extraordinary miracle.
