THE MARKETS. The receipts by casal of Whest and Flour during the past wick, are fully as large as child be expected at this season of the year. It is stingle, however, that the supply will full off, and as most of the Pork, Lard, etc., is forward, we may expect dull times for two mouths to come. The adaptments of Goods down the canning may not be considered. the canal may not be considered large, and so far this season, we have not had comparatively any Goods for the Olifo River. This is attributed to the high rates of freight on the Erio canal, and a free navigation or the river from Pittsburgh down. As the rates by the northern route have been reduced, and with the expectation of low water in the river during the summer and fall, we shall get our usual share of the souther
