

The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 12, 1864. PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE. COMMITTEE FOR JULY. Josiah King, J. Carothers, W. J. Howard.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE. The Committee of Correspondence appointed by the late County convention, will meet at the Court House, in the City of Pittsburgh, on Saturday, the 20th day of July, at 10 o'clock A. M.

On our outside front will be found some interesting matter—The Disasters, &c., in Philadelphia—it would be the Real and the Ideal, &c.

THE DIORAMA.—The performances this evening are for the benefit of Mr. J. Dawes, the mechanical manager of the Fantoccini. The attractions of the evening are of the first order, and cannot fail to please. We anticipate an overflowing house.

MISS EMMA LECK.—This talented and graceful Miss Leck makes her first appearance at our Theatre, and she is in the quietude to witness the fine movements of this very beautiful young lady—who who admires chaste and elegant dancing, this will be a rich treat, and with the extraordinary attraction presented, Mr. Hannington will reap a rich harvest.

EMULATION.—A drunken negro woman was brought to the Mayor's office, on Wednesday night. She was very cross and noisy. The watchman told her to go down the stairs into the Tomb. Very clear it is, and she, 'take me in, dar, dar, dar, white folks goes.' [Meaning the office.] She thought that as a culprit, she ought to be on an equality with the 'white folk' in the same category. But they sent her down below.

DEED.—On Thursday evening, 11th inst., at 5 o'clock, GEORGE COLLIER MARY, youngest son of James May, the friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral at 6 o'clock (shifting, from his residence on Penn street.

POSTSCRIPT. THE RIOTS ENDED. Soon after Governor Fort's arrival in Philadelphia, a General Order was issued, making the most prompt provision for the preservation of order. He closes with these words: "Riot and bloodshed must be terminated at once; the duty of enforcing this with the Executive, and those who act under his orders, and whatever he has said, this duty shall be faithfully and fearlessly performed."

There were some straggling parties of the mob parading the streets, with a cannon mounted on a drag. They all, however, were dispersed by peaceable means, and all is quiet. Every individual feeling secure, and the fearful riot seems at an end.

LATELY. The Baltimore Star gives a letter dated at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, which is as follows: "The police of Southwark are still in quiet possession of the church of St. Philip de Noy, in the street. Large masses of people are gathered in different parts of the district. Many of the most respectable citizens of Southwark are endeavoring to rally the excitement of the mind and restore peace and quiet; we hope they may be successful."

Everything which was the subject of war. The city and ward had come an hundred miles from the interior. Companies of troops were hourly arriving from the country. The city and county troops were all under arms, and stationed at the Guard Bank, the Arsenal, at Thirtieth street, and various other posts.

LOUISIANA ELECTION. GLORIOUS VICTORY IN NEW ORLEANS. 1059 Dem. Gain! We have returns from the city of New Orleans in the election of July 2. There was a most exciting contest, owing to a dispute about receiving the votes of those who had been fraudulently arrested by a warden named LILLIOTT. A Democratic Inspector was actually driven from the polls, and others were voted and abused the whole day. But notwithstanding the returns of the "immoral and profane" candidate have been beaten. The Democratic average in the city is set down at 1261. Six of the city representatives are supposed to be elected, though there is some doubt as to this. One thing is certain—we have a glorious victory. In the city of New Orleans in 1810, Harrison had 933 majority! Now we have 1261—gain 1059! Three electors for the noble Democrats of New Orleans!

Information has been received from Mexico, that a very large force of troops sent out from Gen. W. J. R. division of the army to suppress the smuggling trade carried on by the Rancheiros, or border Mexicans, recently had a encounter with the Rancheiros near Corpus Christi. The soldiers were routed, and their Captain, with three or four soldiers, instantly executed by Delarrie, the leader of the Rancheiros. Upon the receipt of this information, General Wolf sent out a large force to resist Delarrie, &c., but they were met by a large party under General Canales, the Governor of the Department, who sent them back to Gen. Wolf with a message that 20,000 men could not effect his purpose. It is said that Gen. Canales has been commanding a Rancheiro for a long time past, and he furnishes them with the force to resist the Government troops. He is supposed to be encouraged to pursue this course by General Arista, who is residing at Saltillo, the head-quarters of Gen. Wolf.
