"The nominations of Polk and Dallas have been every where hailed by the Democracy with an intense centhusiasm, which is the sure presage of victory. In these nominoes, our glorious principles, destined to spread liberty and law over the whole earth, have found worthy representatives. Both of them are new inential expected with the high stations to which they which he is now re the station of his converted with the high stations to which they which he is now re the station of his converted with the light are thus at ones. by their distinguished services. We are thus at once emight have distracted the party, had either of the two distinguished and rival candidates been selected. The cracy of the Union, with Polk and Dallas for their leaders, will make a fresh start, and are, I trust destined to run a glorious career. The young democruts, who have sprung into political existence since Gen Juckson retired from office, will now feel assured Gen Juckson retired from office, will now feel assured that they have a fair and equal chance for the honors. The following is a list of a part of this assortment which ud rewards of the country with their elder associates.

At this auspicious moment of our political existence, shall we not commence a new ora of good f.ml. tence, shall we not commence a new era of good feeling in Pennsylvania? Shall we not bury in oblivion those unhappy dissensions which have heretofore existed, and march to victory as a band of brothers? for myself, it is sufficient for me to know that a democrat will support Polk, Dallas, and Muhlenberg, and I shall then extend to him the right hand of political followship. The present is not a moment for members of the party to obtude their private griefs, if they have any, upon the public, or to indulge in criminare-crimination against each other. Let us c charge in solid columns on the enemies of Democratic principles, and the victory will be ours. In union alone there is strength; and if, at an early period of the contest, it shall be rendered manifest to our sister States that the Democracy of the Keystone are firmly united, our moral influence will be powerfully felt throughout the length and breadth of the land."

The Stuarts .- It was noticed that the last of the Stuarts died lately in obscurity. There never was a whole race so singularly unfortunite during at least 400 years. Robert III broke his heart because his eldest son Robert was starved to death, and his youngest son made captive. James I was assassinated in a Convent near Perth; James II was killed by the bursting of a cannon: James III was thrown from his horse and murdered in a cottage where he sought shelter; James V diet of grief for the loss of his army. Henry Stuart, Lord Dudley, was assassinated; Mary Stuart beheaded; Charins II exiled for many years; James II lost his crown-Anne died broken hearted, and the posterit of James were wretched wanderers, and all are no

Mr. Joinson, your agent at his place, thinks you would probably like an agent his Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A. Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is wifing to act for you. You can send the medicine by waiter to the care of Robert King & Buns, Knoxvitie county. Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, Engl care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tendensee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee, I have no doubt tou if you had agents by several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of h bome for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent of Biuntville, Sulfivan County East Tennessee; I can got some of the merchants to det for you as I live near there.
Yours respectfully.

Look at This. THE attention of those who have been somewhat a sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and To the Agent, Mr. J. Kirry.

To the Agent, Mr. J. Kirry.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uncasiness and agrees well with my dict, - and maintainsa regular and good appetite. Feansine cycly recommend it to all others similarly afflicred. J. Minnier, Boungh: of March 9, 1840. Chambersburgh.
