MORE CLAY ENTHUSIASM.

Oh dont you see the people risin'
For Henry Clay and Frelinghuysen.

Mr. John F. Thomas, of Allen county, Ohio, writes to the editor of the Ohio Statesman, that he has been a Whig for twenty years and has gone all lengths for the cause, but he is a Whig no longer, and will hereafter vote the Democratic ticket.

R. M. Mead, Esq., one of the candidates for Electors in Virginia, in 1840, has repudiated Clay and his heresies.

Judge Gobison, of Petersburgh, Va., has also renounced the Whig cause.

Lewis M'Lane, formerly a Senator from Delaware and afterwards a Secretary of State, has come out for Polk and Dallas. He supported Harrison in 1840.

Capt. Stockton, of New Jersey was one of the crack orators for "Tippecanoe and Tyler too" in 1840, has enlisted under the Democratic banner, and goes for "Young Hickory true and Dallas too."

Every where the people are abandoning the shatter ed hulk of old Federal Whiggery, as rats desert a sinking ship, and the leading Whigs have already become so disheartened that they cannot raise a decent "hurrah" for their cause—the shouts all stick in their throats. We copy the following from the Hollidaysburg, Pa., Standard of the 15th inst:

"A Number of Screws Loose."—We have learned that Judge Todd, Attorney General during Governor Ritner's administration, and one other very distinguished member of his (Gov R's) Cabinet have refused to sustain the nomination of Henry Clay for the Presidency, and signified their intention to vote for Messrs Polk and Dallas. This looks a little squally. We have also heard the names of several other distinguished members of the Antimasonic party in this State, who have refused to support the Grand High Priest of Masonry for the Presidency. Would it not be advisable for some of the honest Antimasons of Huntingdon county, to settle with their conscience the question of consistency? Oh, consistency thou art a rare jewel.

We are authorised to offer a liberal reward for the discovery of every consistent Huntingdon county Antimasonic Whig, who can consistently cast his vote for Henry Clay.

CURIOUS DIVORCE CASE.

When did the course of true love ever run smooth! Read this, ye readers of romance and fiction. It is copied from the N Y. Sunday Mercury.

Miss Margaret E. Robinson, aged about 17, daughter of Mr. David H Robinson, a merchant of this city, last week obtained a divorce against a young man named Edward M Cowdrey, under the following singular circumstance. He was a young man of respectable standing at that time, about 21 years of age, and frequently visited her at the house of her father, 108 Second Avenue, and they became attached to each other. Her parents (with a view, it is said, of withdrawing their daughter from the attentions of defendant) were about sending her on a visit to some friends in New Bedford, thence to see some friends in the Island of Cuba. The defendant, it is said, dreading that her absence might lose her to him, prevailed on her one forenoon to accompany him to the residence of Rev. Mr. Hutton, a Presbyterian minister, and be married, the understanding between them being that the marriage was not to be considered legal or binding, but merely to render their engagement to each other still stronger. They were so married, a younger brother of Mr. Cowdrey, and a friend of Mr. C. named Wilson only being present. The defendant met her in the street the morning of the ceremony, nearly opposite Niblo's, and they went to Mr. Hutton's in a carriage. While going, it is stated, Mr. C. asserted that the ceremony should be mere form; also that they were not to consider themselves man and wife for two years, and then not till their parents' consent had been obtained and the marriage ceremony to be performed over.

On leaving the house of the minister, the complainant went home to her father's house. The marriage never was consummated. A day or two afterwards, she insisted that her parents should be informed of their imprudence, which was done. Finally, opposition sprang up, and the defendant then claimed that she was his bride, and bound to him by the solemn ties of wedlock. She opposed the idea, and in excuse for the precipitate course she had pursued, declared that he was the first man who had ever addressed her in the language of love, and she thought she could confide in what he said, that the ceremony was not to be legal or binding. This was in March, 1843, Miss R. at the time being but 15½ years of age, though womanly and prepossessing in person.

She having repented, outgrown her first love, or seen "another," applied to the Court of Chancery, and and Mr Cowdrey is a "forsaken one."

Ha! what makes your teeth so unusually white?
Quoth Josh's delicinia to him t'other night,
To make yourn look so, with a grin, replied Josh,
I've bought you a bottle of Thorn's Tooth Wash,
'Tis the best now in use, so the gentlefolks say,
And since they have tried this, cast all others away.
But to prove it the best to make the teeth shine,
Look again, my dear Sal, at the lustre of mine.
Then try this great tooth wash,
The Teaberry tooth wash,
And see if this tooth wash of Thorn's is not fine.

Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant tooth washes now in use. DAVID HUNT, Dentist.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable.

J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extremely pleasant dentrifice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.

Their stock of Goods are entirely fresh and having been all purchased for CASH, principally at auction, by George Connel, (who has had long experience in the business, and resides in Philadelphia to make purchases and pick up bargains,) they will, therefore be enabled to offer great inducements to those wishing to purchase: as they are determined to sell at the lowest possible advance on eastern cost for CASH.

They have now on hand a large and well selected stock of seasonable Goods, among which are Blue, Blue Black, Invisible Green, Brown, Steel and Cadet, mixed Broadcloths; Cassimeres and Sattinets; Gambroons; Linen and Cotton Drillings; Cotonade; Vestings, fancy prints; 3-4, 4-4 and 5-4; Bleached and Brown Muslins; Irish Linen; Bed Ticking; Mariner's Shirting; "Titley, Tatham & Walker's," and "Hope & Nelson's" Patent Thread; Spool Cotton; Sewing Silk; Silk and Cotton Hdkf's; 30 hour, and 8 day Brass Clocks, warranted; &c., &c. They will be constantly receiving additions to their stock purchased at the eastern auction, and would invite the attention of dealers and others to an examination of their goods before purchasing elsewhere.

WARRANTED GENUINE.—Dr. William Evans's Camomile Pills,

CERTIFICATES.—Letter from the Hon. Ab'm M'Clellan, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress

WASHINGTON, July 24, 1838.

Sir.—Since I have been in this city I have [illegible] of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit to [illegible] factions, and believe it to be a most valuable [illegible] of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Carden's Bend, Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some of the [illegible] and he has employed it very successfully [illegible] and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents for several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Blountville, Sullivan County, East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully,
ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.

Look at This.

THE attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can sincerely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MIRRICK, Borough of Chambersburgh

BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS

These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.
