Ward, this evening, preparatory to the meeting at Broadhurn's, on the 3d of August. It will be addressed by the Hon ARNOLD PLUMER, of Venango, Democratic member of Congress in 1842, whose vote was recorded for the Taciff of that year in all its stages; and by Col B B Taylor, late of the Ohio Senate and now editor of the Western Democratic Review Col T dddressed the democrats of this city at the Hall of the Keystone Association in the summer of '42, and his speech will long be remembered as a splendid effort We hope to see a large attendance. A Hickory Pole 146 feet in height, clear of the ground, was raised by the Democrats of Elizabeth or laturday afternoon last, the 20th inst. A splendic flag, bearing the inscription, Polk and Dallas, was raised to its top amid the shouts of the assembled multitude many of whom were engaged battling for our opponents in 1840. The star-spangled banner which now floats in the breeze was made by the ladies -who displayed their loss of our principles by assembling themselves together and devoting a little time to the manufacture, of that which is the Democrats' boast -the Patriots' pride.

A MISTARE .- The Baltimore Sun, in enumerating the lady Managers in the United States, locates Miss Clarendon in St. Louis; this is a mistake; Miss Clarendon was the manager of the Pittsburgh Theatre.
