SONG FOR THE PEOPLE. ST "PER SE" OF THE OHIO STATESMAN. OUR CANDIDATES.

AIR-" Yankee Doodle." Our candidates are in the field,

And the Democratic party Will bring them in through thick and thin, With a right good will and hearty. Then here's to Polk and Dallas, boys! A dose of mortal pisca For the ring-tailed coons, with Ogle's speons. And Clay and Frelinghuysen. cent assortment of Yankee doodle, keep it up, Because it comes so hand To feed the coons, with Ogle's spuons, Yanked doodle dandy.

The thrice-defeated candidate, The chief of the ducito As the people's great chief magistrate, Is scarce the proper fellow. Then here's for Polk and Dallas, boys We find their stock is rising, While that of Clay fails every day, In spite of Frelinghuysen. Yankee doodle, keep it up, &c.

A Democrat can black his houts. While Clay his slave is switchen', A Democratic wife can help, Her daughters in the kitchen. But Clay, my lads, if he can's have Black slaves, he must have white ones, And with the coons and Ogle's spoons, We think he's got the right ones. Yankee doudle, keep it up, &cc

We want no Bank to break us down, We want no second Biddle, To regulate the affairs of State. By playing second fiddle. We want a simple Government, All tricks and schemes despising Such as the Bank and Bankrupt Law Of Clay and Frelinghuysen. Yankee doodle, keep it up, &c.

Hurra for Polk and Dallas, boys, The breach is growing wider, Between the cabins and the coons. The gourd shells and hard cider The way we'll skin them in the full, Will be to all susprisin,' For a dose of POLK will prove no joke To Cley and Frelinghuysen! Yankee doodle, keep it up, &c. NICHOLAS OF RUSSIA.

According to all accounts, this monarch is a very fine fooking man. At least, we have heard some ladies express this opinion, after reading the various descrip tions. We must remember, however, that tourists and writers on the other side of the water, are very apt to flatter, especially when sketching princes, queens and kings. An English work entitled "Letters from the ' contains this picture from the Czar: WONDERFUL! "A towering plume moved, the crowd fell back, and enframed in a vacant space stood a figure to which there is no second in Russia, if in the world itself-a figure of the grandest beauty, expression, dimensio and carriage, uniting all the majesties and graces o all the heathen gods-the little god of love alon haps excepted—on its ample and symetrical pro-portions. Had this nobility of person belonged to a common Mougik instead of to the Autocrat of all the Russias, the admiration could not have been less, nor scarcely the feelings of moral awe It was not the monarch who was so magnificont a man, but the man who was truly imperial. The person of the Emperor is that of a colossal man, in the full prime of life and health, 42 years of age, and 6 feet 2 inches high, and well filled out without any approach to corpulencythe head magnificently carried, a splendid breadth of shoulder and chest, great length and symmetry of limb, with finely formed hands and feet. His face is strictly -forehead and nose in one grand line; the Greetaneyes finely lined, large open, and blue, with a calmness a coldness, a freezing dignity, which can equally quel ao insurrection, daunt an assassin, or paralyze a petitioner; the mouth regular, teeth fine, chin prominent with dark moustaches and small whiskers; but not ; sympathy on his face! His mouth sometimes laughed his eyes never. There was in his look which no monarch's subject could meet. His eve seeks every one's gaze, but none can confront his.
