INQUEST .- The Coroner yesterday held an inquest on the body of a man unknown to the jury, who was killed by the machinery of a new boat, on which he had just been hired. He was supposed to be about 25 years of age, clothed in a grey cloth roundabout blue pantaloons, and new check shirt; supposed to be

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN ALLEGRENY CITY .-There was a great meeting of the Democrats of Alleghony city, on Saturday evening last, in the new Mar-

According to announcement, after the meeting was organized, Col. B. B. TAYLOR, of Ohio, was called on to speak. He addressed the meeting for nearly three hours, in a strain of most effective eloquence, discussing with equal ability, the first principles of democratic policy, and the issues involved in the present contest.

The whigs tried all manner of expedients to disturb the meeting. Loud talking, scraping of feet and scuffling were industriously kept up nearly all the evening.

BIRMINGHAM & TAYLOR, One fellow, we are told, even went so far as to try to get up a fight, to disperse the meeting. All these schemes of the rowdies failing, the more decent portion of the party began to annoy the speaker by asking questions. When he was talking of the Veto, and the Bank and its corruptions, &c. one great whis asked, 'Where was Mr Dallas, then.' Mr. Taylor replied, 'Obeying the instructions of his constituents, a thing which Mr CLAY REFUSED TO DO, when he was in structed by his state to vote for the repeal of the Bank. rupt bill.' We hope our federal friend was satisfied with this answer.

'Tell'us something about the Tariff,' said a coon who had been all evening in as much agony as a 'toad un. der a harrow, and thought he could gain something by making Mr TAYLOR change his subject. 'Of course,' eaid Mr To, and he began by painting CLAY's southern face on this question, and proved before he had finished that no sincere friend of the Tariff could go for the man who had 'throttled' it.

The meeting was unusually large and enthusiastic. During all the contest of 1840, so great and overshadowing was the influence of the whigs in Allegheny Wednesday and Saturday at 8 o'clock. For freight are put up in packages of from 10 to 50 lbs. THE GALLANT WHIGS. -- On Sunday last, the juvenile Democrats of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, rai sed a Hickory Pole, and ornamented it with a beauti fal flag. The youngsters felt quite proud of their a. chievement, but on Sunday morning they found the pole lying on the ground, and their flag-he stars and stripes-trampled in the dust. After the little fellows had gone to bed, wearied with their exertions in bringing in and putting up the pole, the gallant whigs cume and cut it down. The deed was as courageous as it tlemen who perpetrated it, imagine they have done a very brave act. It is well for them that the boys did not catch them, or they might have discovered that hickory can be used for other purposes besides making
