Precept and Practice .- A letter for London says: A presty loud, but in some respects rather serious. laugh has been raised against certain Bishops in the ouse of Lords. It seems that the Bishop of Exeter has lately taken a furious zoal against certain houses of the Metropolis, and has proposed a bill by which se hopes to accomplish their complete extermination The subject was referred to a committee composed entirely of Bishops—as they, says the Examiner, "were supposed to be the most competent persons to judge of the matter." While the motion was under debate, Lord Fitzhardinge made a previous statement to the effect that several of the most notorious places were owned by the Dean and Chapter of Westminis ter-among the highest dignitaries of the church. He scription. said that in Armory there were 24 of these places; in Orghand street district, 30; in Pyne street district, 40; French and English Funcy styles—suitable for every in York street district, 20; nearly all of which were description of the property of the Dean and Chapter. Thus, it seems that the coffers of the church itself are swelled by rents drawn from the lowest vices. And the body, be it observed, who have tolerated this money-making iniquity, is the same which refuses a statue to Lord Byron, in Wastering of Aller Westminister Abbey, because he was the author of Don Juan.

The Polka at Saratoga .- Monsieur Gabriel de ces are to suit the times. His goods are all made by Korponay, the celebrated Hungarian dancer, and to whom we are indebted for the importation of the "Polka." and other fashionable dances, as performed in public, and in private circles in London and Paris, is, we learn, about to visit Saratoga Springs, for the purpose, of giving lessons in his art. Mr. Wells, also well known as an accomplished teacher, together with an eminent violinist, in order to give the fullest effect to the beautiful and characterist the beautiful and characteristic music of the differ-t lances, will accompany him. We understand that the lessons will be given in the English, French, and linghuysen; late of New Jersey, once rendered his name membership among the shoemakers of Newark; and for his kindness to them and their families they owe him an especial regard. It appears that the shoemakers of Newark, who were ground down by their losses to less than living prices for their work, made a strike and turned out in procession. Theodore Frelinghuy-sen, then Counsellor of Law, volunteered against them, and tried hard to convict them criminally of being sioters and conspirators. This kindly act of his is so well remembered in Newark, that even the most violent Whigs who are shoemakers will not support him at the coming election. - Plebian.

an, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Memberof Congress. Sir-Since I have been in this city I have need some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents; Dr. A. Carden, of Calabbell county Concesses, wrate to mails send him some, which lidid and he has employed it very successfully in his practice, and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your needs to this place, thinks you would probably the an agent le Tennessee. If is, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the male of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Enoxville county, Tennes. see, or by land to Graham & Housson, Taxwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in veral counties in East Tennessee, a great deaf of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it homer for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent an Bluntville, Sullivan County, East Tennesser; I can be some of the merchants to act for you as I live sear theres

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no heartagion in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to proceed. It composes all measurers and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can sindately recommend it to all others similarly afficred. J. Minnick, Borough of
