The Duily Mortuing Post.

PITTERURGH, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 3, 1844. Con our outside form will be found an authenti narrative, entitled "Physiognemy," by the late B Thompson, Esq.; 'Dancing," 'Wellerisms, &c., &c. LAUGHING GAS .- MR. BOLTON advertises an ez hibition of the effect of Gas, to take place at the Thestre, on Monday evening, August 5. Mr B has made every arrangement for the accommodation and comfort of his audience, and promises them a rich treat.

FIRE CUTLERT .-- P. M'KEREA is nightly selling some of the Sacet Catlery ever offered in the city. Participal of all she principal candidates can there ob-tais knives labelled with the name of their choice. These who desire good and cheap Cutlery should visit the stage of the veteran Auctioneer.

The Gasys .- We are gratified to perceive that the Phiadelphia Volunteers are treating the Greys with much kindpose and attention; taking them on pleasure excursions to the remarkable places in the neighbor tiond of the city; visiting the public institutions, and places of amusement, and it is expected that before they return they will all "see the elephant." We are pleased to note these marks of kindness to our citizen soldiers; they are worthy of the most hospitable treatmont, as we are certain there is no volunteer corps i the country that would do more to contribute to the comfort of any company that might visit our city than the Duquesne Greys.

POOR, DEAR LADY The London corre of the Journal of Commerce writes .- It is said that a proposition will be submitted for augmenting the income of the Queen, on the score of her increasing family, and that her Majesty having become pecuniari ly involved, will sock from her faithful parliament a relief from all ber difficulties. Her present debts are stated to be £ 100,000 sterling; the support of berself, husband and court, costs John Bull, £470,000 yearpr about $2,120,000! It certainly must be very difficult to keep within such an income

THE SALADIN PIRATES .- At Halifax, Canada Carr and Galleway, the two sailors of the Saladin, who were indicted for the murder of Fielding and his son, have been sequitted. Fielding, it will be recollected, tion. first beeded the mutiny in which the officers of the Saladin were killed, and was afterwards murdered by the Guard. CL6M.
