Great Mass Meeting UNPRECEDENTED TURN DUTI TEL GOOMS OVERWEILMED

THE PEOPLE IN THEIR MAJESTY HAVE SPOKEN! Never did the democracy display such enthusiasm a on Saturday evening. We expansed a large meeting; we felt confident that the housest supporters of demo cratic pricciples would turn out manfully to show our oppusite the arder that animatos them in the presen wa ware usprepared for such a vast and oreswhilming multiumle as was present. The most sampline statory our friends had not the slightest expec within of such a glorious up rising, and the joy that tramedition the countenances of all must have infused collidence into the heart of the most demonding. In is no energy intion for us to say, that never bus such a recently been hold in Pirtsburgh by any party, and we do not believe that the most reskless of our opponent willdays to any that with all the efforts they could make, they bun produce any thing to compare with it in en black and magnificence of display. We, of course, have no means of knowing anything likeshe exact number tint were present; the large encloque was literally crammed, and it was impossible to breathe with freedom in any part of the lot. Capt. Broudharst, who had better opportunities of forming a correct estimate than any other man, says that it was at loast one third larger than the whig meeting held at th same place two weeks since, and the Clay men estimate that at 5900.

The some anound the Speakers' stand, when the vacating had all assembled, was at once splendid and exciting. The space was completely lit up with torch. es, which, with the light of a hundred transparencies shone upon the joyous faces of the assembled multitude. We never looked upon a scene so well calculated to excite enthusiasm, and give confidence and onjuly 19⁷⁷ couragement to every man who took an interest in the proceedings of the assemblage, and the glorious cause which bodght them together.

which would neutralize whole columns of federal home manufactures: Several of the officers of the mobiling were extensive manufacturers, and in the procossion you might see crowds of our most enterprising chanics of every branch of trade for which cur city is most distinguished.
