The Daily Morning Post.
LETTER FROM TENNESSEE—THE COUNTRY RISING AGAINST CLAY AND HILL.

Jackson, Tenn., July 29, 1844.
Mr. Levi D. Slane—Dear Sir: It is with pleasure that I inform you that Wm H Maxwell, a lawyer of considerable celebrity in this State, has been chosen from among the foul party that voted for old Tip, and has accepted the office of Governor of the State as a man of great strength of mind and unbounded talents, and a well cultivated intellect. He is young, but notwithstanding that, he was the great champion of the cause in this district, and was run by them for a seat in our State Senate.

You will find enclosed a remembrance of Alexander S. Brownlow, (a brother to the notorious William G. of Raleigh notoriety, and also editor of the Whig) Young Brownlow has come out with a list of others "Black Footed" for Fox, Bell, Tamm and The "Democratic" says he will use his giant arm in the defence of Democracy. This is glorious, grand, and beautiful! What say you?

The prospects of success in Tennessee is (in my phrase) unlimited. The cause, poor soul, won't get and take odds, they force and back on all sides. It is not this world! A State that gave old Tip, and twelve thousand majority. Only think of it. The best and most substantial calculations in our State say that Fox and Dallas will carry the State by a majority of six thousand. I think this is too short a calculation for the Texas question is sweeping the whole South and West like a tornado.

Very respectfully,
To THE PUBLIC.—I have been for some time suspicious of the honesty and integrity of the Whig party, and when I have been reading the reports of the Whig party, I have read with great interest and sympathy.
