THE ISSUES IN THIS CONTEST—HOW THEY ARE TO BE ABRIVED AT .- It is fortunate for the Democrasse party that the issues involved in this contest can be arrived at with uncering certainty-that we know what we may have to expect if HENRY CLAY is elected to the Presidency. He is not of a spirit nor temper to to put under the surveillance of a committee-he will answer all his letters himself. He has been too long used to command-too long submitted to as an absolute Dictator, in the party of which he is the acknowledged leader, to put himself under the guardianship of any little knot of third rate politicians, and submit his opinions to their revisal.

It is easy, therefore, while the whigs have this sort of a man for a standard-bearer, to arrive at the true issues of this contest,-and we will hold the whigs to thom with aushaken tenacity. Of what avail is it in the systematic efforts of the whigs to deceive the penple, that a weathercock like Walter Forward, shall make a fluming speech ugninst a Bank.
