Starvation in London .- In the midst of so much miety and extravagance in the city of London, fev the extent of misery which prevails among th ngedy and destitute. We have poor people in this squatry, but seldom or ever hear an instance of a percan dying from actual want. A person by the name of Carson recently died at the Strand Union workhouse, London. A constable swore that he found the man ly ing under the piazza. Covent Garden, in a dying con-dition, but still sensible and able to speak. He was taken as soon as possible to Charing Cross Hospital axamined and his condition ascertained, and immediately sent away, taken thence to the station house, Bow street, and after many orders and counter orders, at length left at the workhouse. Before he became too feeble to speak, he stated himself to have been a barrister's clerk in the temple. He had not tasted food fur three days. He had some bread in his pocket, but hasaid his destitution had become so great that his stomach could not take it. He was in the most deplora-ble condition, and on being searched, all that was found on him was a piece of bread and an old pocket book, containing his contificate of haptism, extracted from the register of the Church of St George's, Bloomshury, and dated 1812. Witness had frequently observed the deceased wandering about Covent Garden Market at night, as if he had no home, but never saw him begging. He did not complain of ill treatment, but wit less had no doubt but he died from extreme want and

WARRANTED GENUINE.-Dr. William CERTIFICATES.—Letter, from the Hon. Ab'h'm # Cletlan,Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Memberof Congress Wassington, July 3d. 1838. Sir—Since I have been in this city I have used some QC your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. Ou of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Ca.onbell county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and says it is invalgable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent la Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, at a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can rend the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like

o hear from you whether you would like an agent at a Buntville, Sullivan County East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there Yours respectfully, ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennes ee.
