DEMOCRATIC SONG.

Composed and dedicated to the First Ward Young Hickory Club of Rochester, by a Member.

AIR—"Sparkling and Bright."

Brilliant and bright, is the freeman's fight,
For Liberty contending;
Our cause so true, we'll thus pursue,
Unflinching and unbending;
Till we hail the day, when Harry Clay,
Our Polk and Dallas meeting,
Shall quick return, to his Ashland bourne,
From Democrats retreating.

Ki Poker and brag, when his elbows wag,
He boasts he can whip the nation;
Still we'll give him a Polk, were he stout as an oak,
To crack his old Clay foundation.
He'll ache all o'er, his bones so sore,
As tho' he had taken pieces;
For salt can't save, the political grave,
Of the mill-boy, and Frelinghuysen.

On pillar and crag, see the coon-skin flag,
In tattered glory streaming
While round its base, with mournful face,
Old Coons are madly screaming.
And chief of the clan, old gloomy Dan,
The mighty Marshfield snorter,
Despising the rigs of the cider whigs,
Goes the death on the brandy and water.

There's poor Fillmore, whom Theodore,
Has thrust aside so queerly,
Refuses to share the Governor's chair,
And why, appears too clearly;
For they're all used up, from coon to pup;
And Clay may rest contented;
For he's "nics cum arous" at the old White House,
To the whigs it will not be rented.

There's little Bill of the Auburn ville,
That Prince of freedom-haters,
But they all agree with you and me,
That he's very small potatoes;
He may rant, and whine, with an air divine,
And scrape with great perfection,
But he's laid out, 'mid the general rout
At the forty-four election.

They may sing and dance, but they've no chance
Against our Polk and Dallas,
For very soon, their "same old coon,"
We'll swing on a hickory gallows;
He'll mourn and wail, and twist his tail,
His fate he'll soon diskiver,
For this corn-stealing thief will be gnashing his teeth,
On the banks of the Saline river.

And when he's skinned, and has slipped his wind.
To make him rot the faster,
We'll bear him away to the Temple of Clay,
Wrapped round with a whig shinplaster;
And on his tomb you'll read his doom,
A sad and fearful warning.
His neck got noosed while robbing a roost
One bright November morning.

Then fling on high, to the bright blue sky,
Our proud and spotless banner,
Our ship all right we hail the fight.
With brave boys we will man her.
With Captain Polk, and hearts of oak,
We'll make the tories craven;
And Dallas, too, with his noble crew,
Will reach the destined haven.

Three cheers, hurrah! let it sound afar,
Three cheers! Our next election
Will send old Clay where he ought to stay,
On his farm, to plot deception!
Then three times three, for Tennessee,
And three times three for Dallas,
Under stripes and stars we wage our wars,
Of the rights of freedom jealous.

Extraordinary Case.

MR. JOSEPH MEANS, of this city, had been afflicted for two years with Dropsy, during all of which time he had been under treatment of the most eminent medical men he could find; being given up as incurable he was advised by a Physician to try the MEDICATED VAPOR BATH; after taking the Bath and medicines for five days, he went to work at his trade, and has been able to work at it every day since. Persons afflicted in the same way can be referred to Mr. Means himself, and other gentlemen who are well acquainted with his case, by calling at our office on Fifth street, next door to the Pittsburgh Foundry.

WOULD be consulting their own, and the interest of their customers, to a very great extent, by purchasing Spices, Drugs and Dye Woods in the Eastern markets, whole and in sticks, and getting them ground and chipped at the Franklin Manufactory, Second street.

It is not generally known, but nevertheless true, that Drugs and spices sold in the East, are lower in price than whole, of course the profit and cost of grinding must be made up by adulteration; dye woods have at least 15 per cent, and in some cases 25 per cent. of water added to them. Now water, dust, cornmeal and flaxseed meal are plenty here, and we can eat them in their purity, if so it pleases us, without paying a pepper price with freight and premium added.

La! what makes your teeth so unusually whith?
Quoth Josh's dulcinia to him t'other night,
To make yourn look so, with a grin, replied Josh,
I've bought you a bottle of Thorn's Tooth Wash,
'Tis the best now in use, so the gentlefolks say,
And since they have tried this, cast all others away.
But to prove it the best to make the teeth shine,
Look again, my dear Sal, at the lustre of mine.
Then try this great tooth wash,
The Teaberry tooth wash,
And see if this tooth wash of Thorn's is not fine.

Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant tooth washes now in use.

DAVID HUNT, Dentist.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable.

J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extremely pleasant dentrifice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.

They have now on hand a large and well selected stock of seasonable Goods. among which are Blue, Blue Black, Invisible Green, Brown, Steel and Cadet, mixed Broadcloths; Cassimeres and Sattinets; Gambroons; Linen and Cotton Drillings; Cottonade; Vestings, fancy prints; 3-4, 4-4 and 5-4; Bleached and Brown Muslins; Irish Linen; Bed Ticking; Mariner's Shirting; "Titley, Tatham & Walker's," and "Hope & Nelson's" Patent Thread; Spool Cotton; Sewing Silk; Silk and Cotton Hdkf's; 30 hour, and 8 day Brass Clocks, warranted; &c., &c. They will be constantly receiving additions to their stock purchased at the eastern auction, and would invite the attention of dealers and others to an examination of their goods before purchasing elsewhere.

WARRANTED GENUINE.—Dr. William Evans's Camomile Pills.

CERTIFICATES.—Letter from the Hon. Ab'm M'Clellan, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress

WASHINGTON, July 2d, 1843.

Sir—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Claiborne county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Blountsville, Sullivan County, East Tennessee; I am not some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully,

ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.

Look at This.

THE attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KEMP.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can sincerely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersburgh

BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS

These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and excretent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.
