PITTSBURGH, PA.

VEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 21, 1844 Cincus.-Messrs Clayton and Bartlett have had Il houses since their opening; and they deserve them, beir company is excellent, and the arrangements untrpussed. Mr Clayton, the proprietor, gives his permal attention to the management, and the public ay therefore expect that nothing that he, and the atntive and obliging Treasurer, Mr Burrows, can do r their comfort, will be wanting. They give an ternoon and evening performance to-day.

More Stanning .- We are pained that we have notice another case of stabbing, resulting we fear, in ie death of an old and respectable citizen. On Monday evening, about dark, a man named own, stubbed Mr John Anderson, the Toll Collector the Upper Allegheny Bridge, in the abdomen with chisel. The wound is about two inches in length, and fore) at 3 o'clock. P. M. and Beaver at 3, A. M. ktends through the coats of the stomach. Drs Hastt, McCracken and Fahnestock dressed and stitched se wound, and rendered every attention in their swer, but with little hopes. Down was arrested tortly after the commission of the act at a pole raising the 5th ward, and taken to the residence of Mr Anerson, who immediately recognized him as the man. be circumstances may be gathered from the following eposition of Mr Anderson, which we copy from the TTY OF PITTSBURGH, se. John Anderson, being duly affirmed according to law, eposes and says: I went into the toll-house to take the all from a couple of men, and as I was making change is man ran past. I called to him to come back; he id so, he turned around and stabled me. After he abbed me I picked up a stone to throw at him, and in after him holding my bowels. I then called to Mr Surphy to catch this man as he had murdered me. I old him two or three times before he seemed to unerstand me. I then went into the toll-house. On aturday night our young man stopped this same man ad we had some difficulty with him. He said he was ne of Moorhead's men and would go over when he leased, and we had some difficulty and words. This the man. I am perfectly in my senses and know him erfectly. Sam knows that he is the same man with of 50 cents a copy, at hom we had the difficulty on Saturday night. As ear as I could see when he stabbed me the weapon 788 a chisel. This was on Monday evening, August 9, 1844.
