

Members of the millionaires which have been...
The Daily Morning Post.
PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES K. POLK,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GEO. M. DALLAS,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.
FOR GOVERNOR,
PERS. R. SHUNK,
OF THE DECISION OF THE PEOPLE.
FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,
JOHN HARTSHORNE, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

CONGRESS,
ALEXANDER BRACKENRIDGE, Pitt.
State Senator,
CHAMBERS MCKIBBIN, City.
Assembly,
JAMES A. GIBSON, Pitt.
JOHN ANDREWS, Pitt.
MISS WHITTAKER, Minn.
STEPHEN WOODS, Robinson.
Commissioner,
WILLIAM EWING, Robinson.
A Senator,
EDWARD MCKORKLE, Indiana.

THE TEA AND COFFEE TAX.—It is understood that Mr. Clay proposed to levy a Tax on Tea and Coffee, for the purpose of raising revenue to supply the deficit occasioned by the withdrawal from the National Treasury of the proceeds of the sale of the public lands. This was purely a piece of Southern policy. The southern Whigs would never have consented to support the Distribution Act, and Mr. Clay's intention to do so, in some degree, the amount of a Revenue Tax, unless some scheme should be proposed which would replenish the National Treasury without taking any thing from their pockets.

Mr. Hamilton Stewart.—A man who signs himself "Hamilton Stewart," has taken a shrewd and novel mode of having a card of his business published in the Gazette, without incurring the expense of an advertisement. In the list of the Democratic County Committee in the name of Mr. Hamilton Stewart, of Versailles township, and this Hamilton Stewart of Versailles appears to obtain notoriety, comes out over his own name to say that it cannot be his, for he is a Clay man. We can assure Mr. Hamilton Stewart, that we did not look closely at the Committee, he would have seen that Mr. Lewis Weyman is the member from the ward where he resides, and that three staunch Democrats represent the other wards of Allegheny, in the Democratic Committee. We commend the cunning of Mr. S., who has got some notoriety among his brother Democrats by his publication.

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Pittsburgh Gazette of December 23, 1842, endorsed the following from the Mercer Luminary: "They [the Democrats] could be brought in on the course that would be Mr. Clay's 20,000 votes in Pennsylvania. There are thousands in this State who would not vote for Clay, but who would vote for Mr. Clay under any circumstances."

CLAY A FREE TRADE MAN.—According to the Pittsburgh Daily Gazette, of February 27, 1843, Mr. CALHOUN is the devoted advocate of Slavery and Free Trade; and Mr. CLAY is "SECOND BEST." Think of this, ye reckless whigs, who want to gamble the people with your assertions that CLAY is a Tariff man.

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY AND THE DEMOCRATS.—It will astonish and shock those who have for the last few years read the Gazette, to learn that the object again desiring that he be nominated Clay as a candidate for Governor in many years' editorial experience, we remember of no instance of mendacity so startling and so shameless as the assertion by the editor of the Gazette in his paper of yesterday, that "in every remark he made concerning Clay, he treated him with all proper respect. If he meant this as a sarcasm, it is more than we can say. Love ourselves as we may, we do not wish to be abused or applied to by epithets to Mr. Clay, directly or indirectly."

It will be vain for the Gazette man to make his readers believe this without some proof of the truth of what he asserts. We, therefore, dare him to republish from his own paper of October 29, 1842, the seven last paragraphs of an article headed "The call of the Whigs of Ohio," in which paragraphs two names occur—Clay and Harrison—in which it is shown that Harrison was neither a democrat, nor a whig. Let him publish this, and leave it to the friends of Clay to say whether these epithets are not applied to him.

These are but a part of the articles against Clay which the Gazette teemed for many months, but they are sufficient for our purpose. If they contain no error, we will, of course, give them in its readers.

Mr. Hamilton Stewart.—A man who signs himself "Hamilton Stewart," has taken a shrewd and novel mode of having a card of his business published in the Gazette, without incurring the expense of an advertisement. In the list of the Democratic County Committee in the name of Mr. Hamilton Stewart, of Versailles township, and this Hamilton Stewart of Versailles appears to obtain notoriety, comes out over his own name to say that it cannot be his, for he is a Clay man.

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

TO the Democrats of Allegheny County, for the purpose of holding a meeting at Broad Street, on Friday, the 16th inst., at 10 o'clock, P. M.

A party of the proceedings of the Democratic Mass Meeting held at Mr. Broad's, on the 16th inst., having been published over the proper name of the official report, it becomes the duty of every Democrat to express his views on the subject. It is the duty of every Democrat to express his views on the subject. It is the duty of every Democrat to express his views on the subject.

Coming together with such feelings, and sustained by such motives, it was natural for the Democrats of Allegheny to express on the same occasion their deep sympathy for the civil death of a living Member in the State of Democracy, Gov. Dorr of Rhode Island, whose fate is certainly a sad and the situation of his family and friends equally to be commiserated with that of the friends of Mr. Mulhberg. To their honor and credit be it said, they did so, and their feelings of honest indignation at the crime were expressed by the whig Governor of Rhode Island, on the 16th inst.

The President of the meeting thought it not in order to not in good taste, to express sympathy for the death of the distinguished, virtuous and patriotic citizen, the late Governor of Rhode Island, on the 16th inst. The meeting, however, with almost unanimous consent, resolved to express their sympathy for the death of the distinguished, virtuous and patriotic citizen, the late Governor of Rhode Island, on the 16th inst.

These are but a part of the articles against Clay which the Gazette teemed for many months, but they are sufficient for our purpose. If they contain no error, we will, of course, give them in its readers.

Mr. Hamilton Stewart.—A man who signs himself "Hamilton Stewart," has taken a shrewd and novel mode of having a card of his business published in the Gazette, without incurring the expense of an advertisement. In the list of the Democratic County Committee in the name of Mr. Hamilton Stewart, of Versailles township, and this Hamilton Stewart of Versailles appears to obtain notoriety, comes out over his own name to say that it cannot be his, for he is a Clay man.

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

CLAY'S POPULARITY.—The Harry of the West offers to sell five whig songs for two cents. This is cheap enough in all conscience, but we fear they will not make a profitable speculation of it, as the people have no taste for whig songs as long as they remember the lyrics of 1840, that promised "two dollars a day and roast beef."

ACADIA!
15 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.
The Acadia arrived in Boston, on Sunday, at half past 2 o'clock, P. M.

The Acadia arrived in Boston, on Sunday, at half past 2 o'clock, P. M. The demand on the 23rd instant was steady. The accommodation of the Queen had not taken place. An attempt had been made to assassinate the king of Greece.

Some of the Liverpool people are in ecstasies with the arrival of the Acadia, which recently arrived there from Boston. Letters from Constantinople state, that the immediate departure of the Acadia, was even more desirable than at first reported. It was valued at $1,000,000.

A collision at the beautiful Iron Works at Aberystwyth, recently ignited, and is now on fire to the extent of 200,000. Many serious accidents have already occurred at the works. We would advise those who are in the habit of paying cash for their work, to call on Mr. J. W. Williams, at No. 351 Liberty Street.

THE new style in the Market of Cashmere and Worsted Goods, is now opening the most splendid variety of the above goods ever laid on a Pittsburgh store. Every piece is new and of the latest importation. Besides, we will sell cheap for cash and warrant good.

WANTED—as soon as possible, a number of good Hands, Boarding Houses and private families, for the purpose of teaching the deaf and dumb, in the English, French and German languages. Also wanted, places for a number of old, middle aged and young men and boys, for towns and country. Please apply to HARRIS General Agency and Intelligence Office, No. 9 Fifth St. aug 21-1w

Sealed Bidding.
20 BOXES SCALED HERRING,
20 lbs. each, for sale.
Just received for sale.
RINHART & STRONG,
140 Liberty Street.
aug 21

Notice.
JONA. KIDD, having on the 5th inst. associated with the late J. W. FLEMING, the business, in future, will be conducted under the firm of J. KIDD & CO.
JONATHAN KIDD,
JOHN FLEMING,
Pittsburgh, Aug. 21, 1844.

3,100 LBS. CHIP LOGWOOD,
20 Bbls. CASTOR OIL, in storage for sale at the Drug Store of JONA. KIDD & CO.,
corner Fourth and Wood streets.
aug 21

LOUIS' NO. ELEVEN
Pittsburgh and Magazine Almanacs, for 1845.
Calculated by S. W. C. Hill, to equal, moon or clock time, for 1845.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

For Sale.
A SMALL FARM, containing about 40 acres of Land, situated in the Township of...
Apply to
J. M. DAVIS,
No. 150 MARKET ST. PHILADELPHIA.
aug 22-1w

Wholesale.
THE subscriber has received on Consignment a supply of Broad Cloths, Satinets and Flannels, of a Superior Manufacture, which he will sell by the piece at manufacturer's prices.
GEORGE COCHRAN,
No. 26 Wood Street.
aug 22

Notice.
ALL persons are hereby forbidden to harbor any person named DANIEL M'WILLIAMS, or to encourage him in staying away from home. If I detect any of those who harbor or do this, I will prosecute them to the extent of the law.
PETER M'WILLIAMS.
aug 22

Notice.
A LITTLE SUPERIOR WOOL DYED ENGLISH Naval Blue, Croom and three Brown—all of which have been selected with care for our own trade, and are graded from $1 to $11 per yard. We have also prepared a large assortment of FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC HARDWARE AND CUTLERY, to which they invite the attention of Western Merchants.
ALGEO & MCGUIRE,
22 Liberty Street.
aug 21

Notice.
THE new style in the Market of Cashmere and Worsted Goods, is now opening the most splendid variety of the above goods ever laid on a Pittsburgh store. Every piece is new and of the latest importation. Besides, we will sell cheap for cash and warrant good.
ALGEO & MCGUIRE,
22 Liberty Street.
aug 21

WANTED—as soon as possible, a number of good Hands, Boarding Houses and private families, for the purpose of teaching the deaf and dumb, in the English, French and German languages. Also wanted, places for a number of old, middle aged and young men and boys, for towns and country. Please apply to HARRIS General Agency and Intelligence Office, No. 9 Fifth St. aug 21-1w

Sealed Bidding.
20 BOXES SCALED HERRING,
20 lbs. each, for sale.
Just received for sale.
RINHART & STRONG,
140 Liberty Street.
aug 21

Notice.
JONA. KIDD, having on the 5th inst. associated with the late J. W. FLEMING, the business, in future, will be conducted under the firm of J. KIDD & CO.
JONATHAN KIDD,
JOHN FLEMING,
Pittsburgh, Aug. 21, 1844.

3,100 LBS. CHIP LOGWOOD,
20 Bbls. CASTOR OIL, in storage for sale at the Drug Store of JONA. KIDD & CO.,
corner Fourth and Wood streets.
aug 21

LOUIS' NO. ELEVEN
Pittsburgh and Magazine Almanacs, for 1845.
Calculated by S. W. C. Hill, to equal, moon or clock time, for 1845.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.

LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.
For the Meridian of Pittsburgh, but will serve for the adjacent States, without any essential difference, and will be sold by the publisher by the Grosvenor, or Single at fair prices for Cash or by Order.
LUKE LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89 Wood St.