PRICE, TWO CENTS. Correspondence of the Post, adopted. On last evening, a most numerously attend,

This morning they assembled in considerable num ber in the public square, where they raised another splendid Hickory Pole, and a beautiful streamer was rown to the breeze from its top, with the words &wz en for Shunk, in large offeracters on it. It was received with enthusiastic cheers, and appropriate music. This was about 11 o'clock, A M, and at 1 o'clock a carriage filled with musicians playing, and flage fly. ing, followed by a sumber of citizens on horseback and many on foot proceeded through the town to the roadfording, about half a mile from the town, to reeive and escort the Farmers of Derry township, who ossed the Conemaugh River at that point, not with a pole but a hickory tree, taken up by the root, each hundred and seven feet, six inches in length, drawn by six beautiful grey borses; fullowed by one hundred and twenty-four of the unbought Democrats of Old Westmoreland, with music undbanners. They proceed ded through town, and crossed the Conemaugh Bridge, and planted the tree, in front of the School House, in wn. Derry towns pposite Blairsville; here from its towering height, now roudly floats the Star Spangled Banner, free to the winds of Heaven. After several addresses were delivered, a large por tion of those present formed a procession preceded by martial music, marched through Bairdstown, and Slairsville, thence back to the Hickory Tree, formed around it, and gave nine hearty and deafning cheers, for Polk, Dollas, and Shunk, and then dismissed in the most perfect order, as became Democrats and freemen, quite unlike the whige on such occasions, who although they put forth high protensions to all the decency, yet on such occasions degrade the name of nen, by their shouts and yells, and ribald songsappear more like inebriate Indians, than civilized free The whigs have now fairly given in, that Shunk will be

This is a fact that cannot be gainsayed. The people are rising in their strength. The Mass Moeting to neral assortment of Drugs and Medicines may always | be held in Saltsburgh in this county on the 27th., will be followed in quick succession throughout the entire country by the bone and sinew of the land. They have become perfectly satisfied of the extent to which he whigs carried their misrepresentation in 1840, and received from them what! Why in their brief career of profligacy they received an addition of twenty millions to their debt, they received an unconstitutional and villanous Bankrupt law, they received a mammoth Bank bill, and had it not been for the virtue, honesty. and firmness of Joh 1 Tyler, the people would be at this noment the slaves of a soulless corporation, directed by gamblers and swindlers, and for the honest exercise of the salutary and constitutional provision of the Con. titution, he has received their unmitigated and virulent slanders. They have received a treaty concected by Webster and his English friend, Lord Ashburton .-The rich family of the late President, has received $25,000, whilst the Treasury is drained and the poor widows of the revolutionary Heroes are left to pine in want, and notice given that there is no money to pay

These and many more such, are the blessings they have received from the federal whigs during their brief career of power. Obtained by fraud and misepresentation, an honest, high-minded and intelligent people will drive them indignantly from the station they have shown by their deeds that they are unworthy to hold. They have proved themselves unworthy of the confidence of a free people-aye, let them again inscribe upon their banners, the morto of the syconbantic slave: "We stoop to conquer!" Their drunken orgies, obscene songs and hard cider, may be in vain epeated. Better pay Major Irons for that dinner. Truly Yours.

om Sachem's Head, where he has been rusticating, ttery to himself, offer as good and well furnished a gives the following amusing account of an adventure AR as is kept in the western country. The choicest which occurred within his hearing while here. Upon my arrival at this place, I noticed a pretty girl who, from her youthful appearance and manners. I supposed to be a candidate for matrimony. She was accompanied by a young brother and sister rather older than herself. In the course of the afternoon a banda carriage and entered the house. Between the two trangers an instant and friendly recognition took place; mutual inquiries were made and answered concerning each other's health, family &c. I left the long seperated lovers tegether, for such I at once surmised them to be, and strolled along the shore to my favorite seat. I had not been there many minutes, when I discovered the pair approaching, and concealed by a projecting fragment of rock, surveyed them unobserved. They advanced directly to the spot where I was, and stood so near me that their conversation was audible.
'I am rejoiced to hear,' said the girl, 'that you have succeeded so well in business, and I suppose (she adled with a laugh) that you intend taking a wife back

'Oh,' replied his fair companion, 'that will be very agreeable—it will make the neighborhood so lively. I hope it will prove so to you, Hetty, for I have indulged the hope, responded the gentleman, with a warmth which brought the blushes to the cheeks the beautiful colloquist, and made her retreat a step arters from him, 'as we have been associates from childhood, and our families always upon terms of intimacy, that

'Certainly!' returned the lady, almost breathless with surprise, 'I trust that we shall pover cease to be

we should be mutually conducive to each other a happi-
