Another Young Hickory.-We witnessed on Mun- Fresh Supplies of choice Family Groceries, comprislay last, anact of daring heroism, which we never saw ing an extensive assortment, among which are the ful aqualled. The flag-rope on our Young Hickory pole lowing articl had got jammed between the pulley and the staff, at Mocha Ja the top of the pole. It was necessary to loosen it be-fave the Democratic flag could be raised to its proud emineuce. Various expedients were tried, and many suggested. Finally Mr Owen Sturdevant, a young man nearly 21 years of age, declared that he could ascend the pole; and a something in his noble countenanceinduced most of the by-standers to believe that he could do it, sure enough. Accordingly, he attempted the daring feat, and succeded in the attempt. He ascended one hundred and fifty feet, to the top of the pole; and while there fastened on a new set of hal-yerds. He then gave three cheers for Polk and Dal-las, and descended in safety, having remained at and near the top of the pole for full two hours. During the whole period, he exhibited not the least symp-toms of fear or hesitation. At one time he stood on the top of the main pole, with his hand carelessly on the stag staff, apparently as much at his case as if he had been standing on the pavement; and when at the very top of the flag staff which it was feared would bend with his weight, he would frequently look below with the most perfect equanimity. A feat requiring more cool courage and firmness, we never witnessed. [Springfield(IU.) Register.

The great improvements in iron manufactures this country, will yet develope that great staple of Pennsylvania's wealth. An iron canal boat has been put upon the Eric caual, by one of the Rochester forwar-ders, and the advantages which it possesses over boats constructed of wood will doubtless lead to an extensive use of that material for the construction of canal ves-sels. There was used in frame and siding sheets, 14 tens of iron—the siding being one quarter of an inch thick; there were 1200 days' work expended on it—the beat costing $4,000. She carries 17 tons more than a boat of like dimensions constructed of wood. There have been, of late, a great many of boats built of ircn, which are much superior to wood, and in Boston, alsettled districts houses will, doubtless, before ten years, be constructed of iron, as they are at this day in Wales. The Keystone wants nothing but enterprise to outstrip even the British Empire in wealth. Excelsior !---
