

Washington, August 24, 1844.

The Daily Morning Post. PUBLISHED BY W. M. WINTER, EDITOR. PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK, OF TENNESSEE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR GOVERNOR, FR. S. R. SHUNK, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOSHUA HARTSHORNE, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

In a speech made in Congress, in the session of 1832-33, on the tariff question, Mr. Polk said: 'The West grows weary of the duty which foreign wool is made to bear.'

My own opinion is that Wool SHOULD BE DUTY FREE, but as wool growers feel otherwise, we have retained a duty of FIFTEEN PER CENT. upon the imported article.

Mr. Polk's correct quotation of our bill from Feb. 14th, 1833. 'We quote him as having written Mr. Clay that he had abandoned protection.'

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

Washington, August 24, 1844.

The Daily Morning Post. PUBLISHED BY W. M. WINTER, EDITOR. PITTSBURGH, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK, OF TENNESSEE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR GOVERNOR, FR. S. R. SHUNK, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOSHUA HARTSHORNE, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

Philadelphia, August 24, 1844.

THE PATRIOT. PUBLISHED BY W. M. WINTER, EDITOR. PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK, OF TENNESSEE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR GOVERNOR, FR. S. R. SHUNK, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOSHUA HARTSHORNE, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

Philadelphia, August 24, 1844.

THE PATRIOT. PUBLISHED BY W. M. WINTER, EDITOR. PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1844.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK, OF TENNESSEE. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR GOVERNOR, FR. S. R. SHUNK, OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOSHUA HARTSHORNE, OF CHESTER COUNTY.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

It is evident that Mr. DEWEY wrote this letter, believing that Mr. Clay had 'abandoned protection,' and his declaration, at a public meeting, 8 or 9 years afterwards, that the Compromise Act was the source of the evil we find in the text, shows how long he held his mind.

Printed by W. M. Winter, at the Daily Morning Post, Pittsburgh.