THE BRIDGE OF SIGHS. "Drowned! drowned! '-HANEET. One more Unfortunate, Weary of breath, Rashly importunate, Gone to her death! Take her up tenderly, Lift her with care; Fashion'd so slenderly, Young and so fair!

Look at her garments Clinging like cerements; Whilst the wave constantly Drips from her clothing; Take her up instantly. Loving, not loathing." Touch her not scornfully: Think of her mournfully, Gently and humanly; Not of the stains of her, All that romains of her Now is pure womanly.

Make no deep scrutiny Into her mutiny Rash and madutiful; Past all dishonor, Death has left on her Only the beautiful.

Still, for all slips of hers, Outing so clammily. Loop up her tresses

Escaped from her comb, Her fair auburn tresses; Whilst wonderment guesses Where was her home? Who was her father ? Who was her mother : Had she a sister ?'

Had she a brother? Or was there a dearer one Still, and a nearer one Yet, than all other? Alas! for the sarity Of Christian charity Under the sun!

Oh! it was pitiful! Near a whole city full Home she had nous. Sisterly, brotherly,

Fatherly, motherly, Feeling had changed : Love by harsh evidence, Thrown from its eminence, Even God's providence Secming ostranged. Where the lamps quiver So far in the river With many a light

From window and casement From garret to basement, She stood with amazoment, F Houseless by night. The bleak wind of March

Made her tremble and shiver, But the dark arch, Or the black flowing river;

Sir_Since I have been in this city I have used some your Dyspeptie medicine with infaile benefit and sai faction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. O. of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Ca.evbell count Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I di and he lias employed it very successfully in his practic and says it is invaluable. Bir. Johnson, your ugant his place, thinks you would probably like an agenti Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden ; a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrate nedicine. Brould you commission him he is willing that for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Kaoxville county, Tennes see, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, En Tennessee, I have no doubt but If you had agents f several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medi cine would be sold. I am going to take some of it hom for my own use, and that of my friends, and should Hk to hear from you whether you would like an agenta Bluntville, Sullivan County, East Tennesser; I can ge some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there
