WHO IS BLENNERHASSET?

A very interesting communication has lately appeared in a Kentucky journal, in answer to Wirt's famous inquiry, and which appears to proceed from some gentleman very accurately informed. It makes out Blennerhassett to have been a man quite different from what the prejudice would have him, and one with tastes altogether congenial with those of Col. Burr himself.—The article itself is too long for us, but an abstract of it will interest our readers.

The writer says that Blennerhassett was a native of Ireland, that his real name was Lewis Carr, and that he was of good family, whose influence procured him an appointment in India, which, however, he was obliged to throw up at the end of two years, in consequence of his intemperate, and licentious habits. From India he proceeded to the Island of Jamaica, where he studied and practised law, and managed to make a fortune by some illicit dealings with the bucaneers who then infested the West India islands. Business led him from the Island to Mexico, where he conceived the plan of getting up a revolution in that country; but, engaging in the intrigue with a lady of Kingston, he found it convenient to leave that place in a hurry, came to the United States, and purchased his island on the Ohio river.—It was on his flight from Kingston that he assumed the name of Blennerhassett.

The writer alleges that the beautiful companion of his romantic solitude in the Ohio was not his wife, but the mistress whom he subsequently abandoned in this city upon the failure of Burr's expedition. Carr then went over to Nassau, N. P., resumed his profession, married, ill-treated his wife, was persecuted by his former mistress, and finally retired to Kingston, Jamaica.—Thence he came to the United States, and died in obscurity in Philadelphia some time in 1883.

We know not to what degree of credence this narrative is entitled. There must be many living, we should suppose, who could and should expose the fraud, if it be one. The subject possesses an interest above that of a mere tale of curious adventure.

Brazil.—Mr Walsh makes mention, in one of his late letters, of an article in a French Review upon a recent work by a French tourist, on the moral and political state of Brazil. The Frenchman gives a very unfavorable account of the inhabitants. He represents them, to use the language of Mr Walsh, as an ignorant, semi-barbarous population, disaffected and turbulent under a government scarcely more enlightened and upright—with no efficient administration, and no real union of the provinces, neither substantive navy nor manufacturers, nor finances except the customs—clergy licentious, and without the least influence in any quarter—no solid organization of any kind—the inhabitants a mongrel breed, composed of Portuguese, creoles of every hue, negroes, mulattoes and Indians. All the provinces aspire to independence; a republic on the pattern of the American is their dream—the Brazilians in their silly pride, deeming themselves too civilized to need even a constitutional monarchy. They place their great men—the Generals, in particular—above the most renowned of the other hemisphere. At his levees, the young Emperor never speaks; he nods and motions, without intelligence in look or gesture. The traveller happened to be at Ouropreto on his Majesty's anniversary; this was celebrated by a military parade in the morning, and at night, at the theatre, by a dramatic pageant. The Emperor's portrait was brought forward on the boards—loyal couplets were sang—all the functionaries, civil and military, knelt before the portrait, and most of them kissed the hands on the canvass! Three rounds of hurrahs closed the homage.

THE subscriber has returned to the city and intends to establish an INFIRMARY for the reception and treatment of deformed members, such as Club or Reeled feet, contracted joints, wry-neck and Strabismus or Squinting, and of Diseases of the Eye.

There is no Institution of this kind as yet in this country, though much needed.

The easy access to Pittsburgh, one of the healthiest spots in the country, by river and canal, almost at any season of the year, would offer great facilities for those desirous of being relieved.

DR. WILLIAM IRELAND'S

OPINION ON THE EFFICACY OF THE MEDICATED VAPOR BATH.

OUT of the number of cases submitted to the Bath, 217 have been cured; and it is but justice to state, that in acute and chronic inflammations, more benefit has been derived from the use of the Medicated Vapor Bath in twenty-four hours, than I have ever witnessed in a month's successful practice.

The following is a list of the disorders included in the above 227 cases:

Acute and chronic affections of the liver;
Scorbutic diseases of the skin;
Scald head, salt-rheums, ring worms, &c.;
Jaundice, lumbago, sciatica;
Acute and chronic rheumatism;
Asthmatic diseases, spitting of blood;
Palpitations of the heart, attended with weak, small intermittent pulse;
Erysipelas inflammations, opthalmia;
Obstinate glandular and scrofulous diseases;
Strangury, spasmodic strictures, &c.
Syphilitic sore throat, eruptions of the skin;
Tic-douloureux, and nervous irritability.

WILLIAM IRELAND, M. D.

Persons afflicted with any of the above mentioned diseases will see by the foregoing letter of Dr Ireland, the success which has attended the administration of the Medicated Vapor Bath, and are invited to call at our office on Fifth street, near Smithfield, and examine further testimonials and certificates of its efficacy.

It is not generally known, but nevertheless true, that Drugs and spices sold in the East, are lower in price than whole, of course the profit and cost of grinding must be made up by adulteration; dye woods have at least 15 per cent, and in some cases 25 per cent. of water added to them. La! what makes your teeth so unusually whith?
Quoth Josh's dulcinia to him t'other night,
To make yourn look so, with a grin, replied Josh,
I've bought you a bottle of Thorn's Tooth Wash,
'Tis the best now in use, so the gentlefolks say.
And since they have tried this, cast all others away.
But to prove it the best to make the teeth shine,
Look again, my dear Sal, and like lustre of mine.
Then try this great tooth wash,
The Teaberry tooth wash,
And see if this tooth wash of Thorn's is not fine.

Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant tooth washes now in use.

DAVID HUNT, Dentist.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable.

J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extremely pleasant dentrifice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.

Fever and Ague Positively Cured by the Medicated Vapor Bath.

A GENTLEMAN of this city, to whom reference can be made, was advised to try the Bath for a soreness in the bones (commonly so called,) and pains in the joints. The soreness and pains were not only removed but having been afflicted a long time previously with Fever and Ague he went into the BATH just as the chill was coming on and it was immediately checked.

During a period of two weeks he has had neither Chill or Fever.

WARRANTED GENUINE.—Dr. William Evans's Camomile Pills.

CERTIFICATE.—Letter, from the Hon. Ab'm M'Clellan, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 3d, 1838.

SIR—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Campbell county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Blountville, Sullivan County, East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully,
ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.

BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS.

These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system: the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, and all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.
