hucksters" to elect a Mayor to suit their own purposes? Are the Draymen of Pittsburgh so blind as not see the object of the whig demagogues, who denounced them as fit companions for "loafers," in January, but have honied words of flattery for them in September. But let us take another extract from this precious whigh and bill of January 9, 1844. It makes the following charge against Mr HAY:

"He has sacrificed the interests of the city to get the votes of a particular class—the DRAYMEN and

What public interest Mr. HAY sacrificed to get the · Hucksters. votes of Draymen, this whig handbill did not tell us lias he not collected their licenses according to law He did not insult nor oppress them, and for this he denounced in this Clay Whig handbill. "For these reasons," says the whig handbill, allu-

Jing to those we have recited and others, "we have minated Henry Earle," * * * "for whom we now ask your votes."

Mr. EARLE, so far as we know, is a worthy and a ropular man; but he was sacrificed by the imprudence of his friends, and borne down by the unpopularity of Clay-whig candidate. The vote for Mayor stood as whigs in January last, and the regularly nominated candidate of the Ashland whigs, got but 531, in the hitherto whigs ive of Pirabural, where the control was then taken decided in the control was decided in the follows: Birmingham, (Dom.) 709-Hay, (Neutral) hitherto whig city of Pittsburgh, where, at the Mayor's election in 1840, the Harrison candidate for Mayor had a majority of over 700 votes. But this base and miserable system of appealing to classes and to factions, is not new with the whigs. They have no principles which they dare to avow, and Whigs, for protection on "wool!" by the .ears, one class with another, if they could thereby carry their point. Last winter they thought they would be willing to set the whole community they would elect their Mayor by arousing feeling or prejudice against the "Draymen," "loafers," and nucksters," who they set down as all equally unworthy, and equally the favorites of the Mayor. Now they appeal to the "Draymen," as a class, to come and support their candidate—they will have no more to-say of the "hucksters" and "loafers" till they wish to insult the "Draymen" again at the election next winter, provided they think it their policy to do

We are mistaken if the honest, intelligent draymen of Pittsburgh will be guiled by the miserable stratagems of these unprincipled politicians.

Col. and Ass't Quarter Muster General, sept 3-tf LETTER OF THE REV. S. B. WYLIE, D. D., ON THE EFFICACY OF THE MEDICATED VAPOR BATH.

Mesers. Fleming & Black: CENTLEMEN:—I have made trial of your Vapor Bath. The benefit thereof has much exceeded my expectatios. I had not anticipated the degree of pleasure produced by the medicated vapor during the whole process of its operation. I could scarcely have spent fifteen minutes more pleasantly; while my lungs were inhaling an odoriferous perfumed atmosphere, and every pore of my system was exuding, in copious perspiration; noxious humors, injurious to the healt y state. I left the Bath greatly refreshed, and even exhilerated. I had been troubled much with rheumatic pains and worn down with fatigue of business; the pains were completely removed, and I received fresh animation. It cannot, it is true, core broken bones, or reduce luxations of joint; to such things it makes no pretensions. But it can and does, expel from the body, such peccent matter as may, by its presence, be incompatible with a perfectly healthy condition of the human frame. Without hesitation; can recommend the Vapor Bath to all afflicied by languor of constitution, or laboring under such diseases as it professes to alleviate or cure.

SAMUEL B. WYLIF. Pittsburgh, Aug. 17, 1844. Philacelphia.
Persons afflicted with Rheumatic pains will see by the above letter that they can rely on being cured, as in no instance where the Bath and medicines were used have they failed to produce a similar result. FLEMING & BLACK, Office on Fifth near Smithfield streets
