Life is too gay-life is too near-With all its nomp and toil; I pray thee do not lay me here in such a world struck-soil.

The ceaseless roll of wheels would wake The stambers of the dead; Leamot b ar for life to make Its pathway o'er my head.

The flags around are cold and drear, They stand apart, alone; And no one ever passes bere To "sorrow for the gone."

No-lay me in the far given fields, The summer sunshine cheers : And where the early wild flower yields The tribute of its tears. Where shadows the sepulchral yew,

Where droops the willow tree, Where the long grass is filled with dow-O! make such grave for me;

And passers by, at evening's close, Will pause beside the grave, And mornlize o'er the repose They fear-and, yet they crave.

Perhaps some kindly hand may bring Its offering to the tomb; And say, as fades the rose in spring, So fadeth human bloom.

But here there is no kindly thought To soothe and to relieve: No fancies and no flowers are brought That soften while they grieve. Here Poesy and Love came nut, It is a world of Stone—
The grave is bought—is closed—forgot
And then life hurries on.

Sarrow and beauty-nature-love Redcent man's common breath; Ah! let them shod the grave above-Gize leveliness to death.

LOVE. The following frugment from the pen of Frederic mitable in its beauty and delicacy

Tell me, my heart, what love is It giveth but to rob-Two souls and one idea,

Two hearts and but one throb And tell me how love cometh? It comes-and ah, 'tis here. And whither, pray, it fleeth?

'Twas not-'twas fancy mere And when is love the pures:? And when is love the deepest! When love the stillest runs

And when is love the richest!
R hoardeth when it gives;
And tell me how love speaketh!
It speaketh not—it lives.

LETTER OF THE REV. S. B. WYLIE, D. D., ON THE EFFICACY OF THE MEDICATED VAPOR BATH.

Messes. Fleming & Black: GENTLEMEN:—I have made trial of your Vapor Bath. The benefit thereof has much exceeded my expectatio s. I had not anticipated the degree of pleasure produced by the medicated vaper during the whole process of its operation. I could scarcely have spent fifteen minutes more pleasantly; while my lungs were inhaling an odoriferous perfumed atnosphere, and every pore of my system was exuding, in copious perspiration; noxious humors, injurious to the healt y state. I left the Buth greatly refreshed, and even exhilerated. I had been troubled much with rheumatic pains, and worn down with fatigue of business; the pains were completely removed, and I re-ocived fresh animation. It cannot, it is true, care bruken bones, or reduce luxations of joints; to such things it makes no pretensions. But it con and does, expel from the body, such peccent matter as may, by its presence, be incompatible with a perfectly health condition of the human frame. Without hesitation, I can recommend the Vapor Bath to all afflicted by languor of constitution, or laboring under such diseases as it professes to alleviate or cure.

SAMUEL B. WYLIE. Pittsburgh, Aug. 17, 1844. Philanelphia. Persons afflicted with Rheumatic pains will see by the above letter that they can rely on being cured, as in no instance where the Bath and medicines were used have they failed to produce a similar result.
