PITTSBURGH, PA.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 14. MRS. Kork, an execulent Actress, appears at the Theatre to-night, as Lucy Fairlove, in the beautiful play of Ambrose Gwinette. This lady brings with her a high reputation, acquired in the South and West.-With such performers as Scott and Mrs Kore, the Theatre should be filled to overflowing.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Yesterday afternoon, one of the most destructive fires with which our city has for a long time been visited octhe weather will permit; on the opening of which curred. A stable on the premises occupied by Mesars | CLARKE & CO'S LINE to CLEVELAND, O., and curred. A stable on the premises occupied by Messrs CLARKE & CO'S LINE to CLEVELAND, O., and Coates & Glenn, as a lumber yard, was set on fire by MEADVILLE, Pa., will immediately go into operasome incendiary, about four o'clock, and in the course tion. For freight or massage apply on board, or to of three hours the stable, with three herses, and all the lumber in the yard, was a heap of ruins. The yard was located at the corner of Pratt and Green streets. Tho loss to Messrs. Contes & Glenn cannot be much less than forty thousand dollars—they were pertially insured. Three dwellings, two story bricks, the property of Mr Mordecai Kelly, were burnt, and another much injured. Mr Kelly occupied one of the houses as a dry goods store—he saved the contents; another was occupied by Mr Cracken-his property was saved; th others, we believed, were unoccupied. Mr Kelly was insured to his great extent of his loss. The property in the vicinity, on Columbia, Green and Pratt streets, was in the most imminent danger, and it was only by the superhuman efforts of the fireman that the flames were confined to the square in which it originated .-An arrest or two of negroes was made by the police, supposed to have been connected with firing the stable. The firemen deserve great credit for their exertions and the wonder is, that with the intense best and the scarcity of water, they were able to do as much as they did. The houses on the cast side of Green street, on the north side of Pratt, werein the greatest danger .-The word work is crisped and blackened-indeed they I were on fire several times, but the flames extinguished. There was a rumor that a child was burnt in one of the houses, but we could not learn that it was a fact, and are disposed to doubt it .- Batt. Sun, Sept. 11.
