Weferred Articles. From the Knickerbocker. A LEGAL BALLAD. BY JOHN G. SAXE. An attorney was 'taking a torn.'
In shabby habiliments drest; His coat was shockingly worn. And the rust had invested his vest His Breeches had suffered a breach, His linen and worsted were worse; He had scarce a whole crown in his hat, And not a half-a-crown in his purse. And thus as he wandered along. A cheerless and comfortless elf, He sought for relief in a soug, Or complainingly talked to himself. Most unfortunate man that I am. My only client is Grief; The case is, I've no 'case' at all, And in brief, I have ne'el had a 'brief.' 'The profession's already so full Of lawyers so full of profession, That a modest young man like myself
Can't make the smallest impression. 'They grant I'm acquainted with 'grants,' Can devise a 'devise,' or a plea, Can make a good deed in 'fee simple,'. But I can't get the simplest 'fee I've weited, and waited in value Expecting an 'opening' to find,
Where an honest young lawyer might gain
Some reward for the toil of his mind.' Whilethus he was wandering along, His eyes accidentally fell On a very deep hale in the ground, And he sighed to himself, 'It is well!' To curb his emotion, he sat On the curb-stone the space of a minute, Then cried, 'Here's an opening at last!' And in less than a jiffy was in it. Next day twelvecitizens came, The 'coroner's' 'quest, to attend;
To the and that it might be determined
How that man had determined his end. The man was a lawyer, it seems, Said the foreman, who opened of course;
'A lawyer! alas!' sigh'd another.
'He undoubtedly died of remorse!' A third said he knew the deceased- 5 An attorney, well versed in the laws;
And as to the cause of his death, 'Twas no doubt for the want of a 'caus The 'crowners' at last gave a verdict, Which finally settled the matter,
That the young man was drown-ded, because the could not keep his head above water. St Albans, (Vt.) August, 1844. Lines by the late John Holmes, of Alfred, Me., originally a Democrat-afterwards a Whig U. S. Ser. There's Harry Clay, some people say, Is plaguy smart and lucky. ft, to make a shift, 'Way over in Kentucky. 'He'll play at BRAG, break every "SNAG" That's in the constitution, And talks so fuir 'twould make you stare, To hear his elecution. But though he may both TALK and PLAY, And is so cute and funny, I'm some afraid he'll learn the trade OF PLAYING WITH OUR MONEY. LETTER OF THE REV. S. B. WYLIE, D. D., ON THE EFFICACY OF THE MEDICATED VAPOR BATH. Messrs. Fleming & Black: GENTLEMEN:—I have made trial of your Vapor Bath. The benefit thereof has much exceeded my expectatio s. I had not anticipated the degree of leasure produced by the medicated vapor during the whole process of its operation. I could scarcely have spent fifteen minutes mor pleasantly; while my lungs were inhaling an odoriferous perfumed atn copious perspiration; noxious humors, injurious to the healt v state. I left the Bath greatly refreshed, rheumatic pains, and worn down with fatigue of business; the pains were completely removed, and I received fresh animation. It cannot, it is true, cure bruken bones, or reduce luxations of joint; to such things it makes no pretensions. But it can and does, expel from the body, such peccent matter as may, by its presence, be incompatible with a perfectly healthy condition of the human frame. Without healtstien, I can recommend the Vapor Bath to all afflicted by languor of constitution, or laboring under such diseas es as it professes to alleviate or cure. Pittaburgh, Aug. 17, 1844. Philanelphiu. Persons afflicted with Rheumatic pains will see by the above letter that they can rely on being cured, as in no instance where the Bath and medicines were used have they failed to produce a similar result. Evans's Chinomite Pills, Cantipicates.—Letter, from the flon, Ab'h'm M'Clei-

ian,Sullivan County, East Tennersee, Member of Congress
Washington, July 3d. 1838. Sir_Slace I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satis faction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Ca_mbell county femnessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did ind he has employed it very successfully in his practice ud sayalt is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent a his place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Pennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated nedicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water taths care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by tand to Graham & Houston, Taxwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had needs in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of mediclue would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Bluntville, Sullivan County East Tennessee; I can get ome of the merchants to act for you as I live near there

Yours respectfully.
