The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA. TUESDAY MORNING. SEPTEMBER 24.

every Monday On our outside form will be found the reply of James M Cunningham, Esq. of Beaver county, to the address of Dr E D Guzzam, who presented the Prize Flag to Beaver, on behalf of Pitt township, together with other interesting matter.

ROBBERT .- The house of a laboring man named Matthew Laing, on the corner of Washington street and Coal Lane, was broken into on Saturday night los", and robbed of about fifty dollars in money, all the th p or man possessed, a silver watch worth $25, and various articles of wearing apparel. No clue to the depredator has yet been discovered. Another warning to housekeepers to look well to the security of their Dosecssions.

Guard. MAGAZINES AT COOK'S .- The October numbers of the following Magazines have been received and are now ready for delivery at Cook's Periodical Office: Graham's American Monthly Magazine. Arthur's Ladies' Magazine.

The Ludies' National Magazine. All of the above magazines are conducted with much ability, and are well worthy the support of those who delight in reading the light literature of the day. The engravings in each are really beautiful and cannot be june 22 surpassed by any similar publications.

The coons are ever urging the claims of Hen-ry Ciay in choice poetry. An extensive collection of ballads has been published by the "Clay Club of Boston," which is must extravagantly lauded by all the faithful of the party. Here is a verse of great beauty and force: "Who rode on Dobbin, old and kind Mitlward his father's corn to grind, With shirt-tail fluttering behind? My Harry."

The Boston Post paraphrases the above as follows, which is nearly as good: "Who wants to reach the Union's summit, But still as far as ever from it-

Who tried three times and couldn't some it? My Harry."

Four Hundred Holsters and Hulster Pouches. Four Hundred Saddle Valises, and A Ducl .-- A duel was fought yesterday afterne Four Hundred Bridles complete near the Metairie race course. The paties are resiparts of pieces, viz : dents of the city-the cause was an alleged or assumed insult to a lady—the weapons were double-barelled shot-guns—the distance was forty paces. At the first Curb Head Stall, Curb Reins, (long) fire, the ball of the party challenged passed through Halter Strap or Shank, the fieshy part of the arm of his adversary and in an angular direction through his side. The wound is not Considered dangerum sidered dangerous. [Picayuze.
