SONNETS OF THE SIDEWALK. Look where that heavy omnibus pulls up! The driver, (let me charitably think He's cirber crazy, or has ta'en a cup To much of that which he thinks good to drink.) Why does he jerk the reins, why leave his scat? His horse has nothing done that I can see; Why does he thus with fist his old nose beat? He's blinded, man, for God's sake let him be! No constable's near; alas, I have no time To go before the justice and complain.not reach you, save in this weak rhyme, All I can do is pray that if again Your soul visits the carth may it be in a borse, And may your driver then use you no worse!

THE GRANDFATHER OF ALL FISH STORIES .-The Appalachicola Commercial Advertiser has won she prize-if there is any prize offered for the greates fib. All the romancers on record, from Munchauser "Nown, must confess themselves out-done by the following choice morsel of invention:

A Singular Adventure. - Last week a young man, while huating on St. Vincent's Islands, lay down upon his blanket in the shade of a tree, and being very tired, soon fell into a sound sleep, which continued about two hours. Upon waking, he discovered that he had been carried about twenty yards from the tree, and that he was still moving along without any visible impellant His first thoughts were of snakes and allizators, which abound in this island. Horrified by the idea of such bed fellows, he leaped from his blanket, and seizing a Rick boldly ventured back to ferret out his unwelcom companion. But the blanker, relieved of his weight, was now marching off in double quick-time, and did not stop until it had arrived at the foot of an enurmous ant hill, nearly eight foot high. It appears that a myriad of these insects, about a size larger than the lion ant, had surrounded, captured, and were quietly conducting him home for winter stores.

Artful Tricks.-An exchange paper gives an account of the artful tricks of a prisoner confined in jail, to induce the appearance of disease, and obtain a release from his punishment. He began to spit blood, had a violent cough and fever, and gradually wasted away, so that those who visited him supposed that his death was rapidly approaching. This continued for a formight, and his weakness was so great that he had to be lifted up to take medicine or nutriment. A turnkey, unfortunately, however, left the door of the ed cachexia homoptysis and epilepsy, but without sucby pounding bricks into powder, putting it into a small rag, and chowing it in his month. He conti ware his nulse by striking his elbows, and said he had taken his fle h off his body in ten days by sucking a copper-cent in his mouth all the night, and swallowing the saliva. It is a very common tractice among cloths and cassingres, new style, which he is confitted in matter of prisons to counterfeit diseases, and all dent cannot fail to please. They are of a most exthe skill, sagacity and vigilance of the physician are | c specesary, in many cases, to detect the imposition.

LETTER OF THE REV. S. B. WYLIE, D. D., ON THE EFFICACT OF THE MUDICATED VAPOR BATH. Mesers. Fleming & Black:

GENTLEMEN:-I have made trial of your Vapor Bath. The benefit thereof has much exceeded my expectatio s. I had not anticipated the degree of pleasure produced by the medicated vapor during the whole process of its operation. I could scarcely have spent fifteen minutes morn pleasantly; while he grinds as a guaranty that all the articles intrusted my longs were inhaling an odoriferous perfumed at-mosphere, and every pore of my system was exuding, in copious perspiration; noxious humors, injurious to the healthy state. I left the Bath greatly refreshed, and even exhilerated. I had been troubled much with rheumatic pains, and worn down with fatigue of busi ness: the pains were completely removed, and I received fresh animation. It cannot, it is true, cure broken bones, or reduce luxations of joints; to such things it makes no protonsions. But it can and does, near the Scotch Hill Market: expel from the body, such peccant matter as may, by its presence, be incompatible with a perfectly healthy condition of the human frame. Without hesitation, I can recommend the Vapor Bath to all afflicted b

CERTIFICATES.—Letter, from the Bon. Ab'h'm B'Cleilan, Sullivan County, East Tennersee, Blemberof Congress
Wasnington, July 3d. 1538. Sir_Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satision, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Curden, of Cambell county Cennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated edicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knozville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Housign, Taxwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt hut if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deat of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it hame for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Biuntville, Sullivan County East Tennerser; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there. Yours respectfully, ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennesses.
