The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 3, 1844.

THEATRE.—To-night Hacket makes his first appearance in the character of Falstaff. In this part he is unequalled, and we have no doubt but he will draw a crowded house.

A FALSEHOOD CORRECTED.—We are authorized by the commanding officer of the Allegheny Arsenal to state that there is no foundation for the publication in the "Harry of the West," which appeared in that paper of the 2d inst, alleging the discharge of a workman from the public service in consequence of his political sentiments. It is true, that within the last month from 15 to 20 mechanics were discharged at the Arsenal, owing to the exhausted condition of the appropriation, and perhaps among that number there may have been one who has fancied himself a political martyr.

The conversation alluded to, as having occurred between the Secretary of War and this individual, is too ridiculous to be seriously mentioned, as nothing of the kind took place.

A Fiction of Manhood.—The Edenton (N. C.) Sentinel, cautions the public against one J. C Murfin, who has been figuring in that quarter since he broke jail at Norfolk, where he was confined for kidnapping and selling a slave. The last that was heard of him, is an account which he gives of himself and from which it appears that he was in Philadelphia. He has succeeded in imposing himself upon some credulous woman, with a couple of thousand dollars at her command, which he was endeavoring to secure to himself, preparatory to leaving her. He says —"I am now living high, and paying a very fine board in the prettiest city in the United States, which is old Philadelphia, and enjoying myself well. I shall stop here no longer than I can get this woman off my hands and then start to look for another. After I do get clear of her I am going to buy me a first rate horse, and start a good distance out in the country to look for another, and by that time I will give up my bad habits of courting, without I get broke; and if I do, that is all the source I have to make another raise; for know, dress me well, with a little money to make a show and act large, I can make a raise any where in the country where there are women or money."

Thomas Williams, Esq. was chosen by the whigs, and Wilson M'Candless, Esq. by the democrats, to be the speakers on the occasion.

E Encill, sen, and Wm Magill, Esq. were appointed moderators.

The whigs and democrats of the two cities and county are invited to attend.

Splendid Paintings for Sale.

A PORTRAIT of the Hon. JAMES ROSS, and one of the Hon. WILLIAM WILKINS, painted by that favorite and distinguished artist, the late JAMES BOWMAN, Esq., are offered for sale.

These pictures are not only valuable as being perfect likenesses of the gentlemen for whom they were taken, but possess surpassing merit, as specimens of art—they have been pronounced by connoisseurs to be splendid paintings, and among the most successful works of the eminent painter from whose hand they come.

They may be seen at the Looking Glass Store of W. C. WALL, in Fourth street, between Wood and Market.

Attention is especially invited to these portraits, as no other opportunity will, perhaps, ever occur to obtain portraits from the pencil of the gifted BOWMAN, at a price so cheap as these are offered.

CANCER, SCROFULA, AND OBSTINATE DISEASES OF THE SKIN CURED BY DR WHITLAW'S VAPOR BATH AND MEDICINES.

INSTITUTIONS for the cure of the above diseases have been in operation for the last twenty years in the principal cities of Europe, also in New York and Charleston, South Carolina: reports of committees composed of the most respectable citizens in the different places where the Baths are established can be seen at our office, that will show that these diseases which have heretofore been considered incurable have almost invariably yielded under the peculiar treatment of Dr Whitlaw. The results which have been produced during the short time the Baths have been in operation in this city, we believe, renders it our duty to inform those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with any of the above diseases, that if they apply to us in time, they can generally expect a cure.

The following is an extract from a report published by the institution at New York, showing the efficacy of the Bath when all other remedies had failed:

"Rheumatic, syphilitic and gouty affections, attended with ulcers, blotches and eruptions of the skin, particularly when originating from the improper use or abuse of Mercury, scald-head, salt-rheum, erysipilas, pimpled face, dry scurvy, leprosy, ring-worm, tetters and all other hitherto unmanageable diseases of the skin, scrofulous diseases are relieved and cured in a much shorter period and with more certainty than any other mode of treatment ever employed."

Star Candles.

'ONE cent saved is two cents earned,' so said Benjamin Franklin, and so will all who make trial of J. S. Gwynne's STAR CANDLES. They will find on trial, that the price at which the subscriber sells them, makes them come as cheap as tallow candles. While in cleanliness and beauty, they are equal to spermaceti: at the same time, they remain perfectly hard at a temperature of 110 degrees, being much warmer than the summer's sun.

Business Coats.

OUR last report brings us out two new coats of this description. The material used in the first is French and English Tweeds, of which we have received some new patterns, suitable for the coming season—such as Bronzed and granite mixed Plaids, &c; these are lined with rich Cashmere throughout, which makes them suitable for any weather. The other is a very desirable Coat, being something between a riding or dress Coat—the material is Olive, Citron, Mulberry, London Brown or Rifle Green Cloths, and trimmed with sporting Buttons, all of which we have in abundance. Come on with your orders, gentlemen; the Cash system makes all the difference, for there is no other customer shop in the City can sell as cheap as the Fashionable Head quarters, No 251 Liberty street
