BBWARE!

The remarkable saying that "Eternal Vigilance i the price of Liberty," now recurs to our minds with unwomed force. Let Democrats remember that against fraud, deception, and trickery, we must ever act on the defensive. These weapons never will be used by the Democrats. All that can be accomplished by them Su politeal warfare, is for the advantage of federal whiggery. Our opponents, then, knowing they have nothing to fear and nothing to lose from the use of such wile expatients by the Democrats, have the mure time to play off their schemes of frand and villainy. Look at the late base coalition of the whigs and ma sives in Philadelphia-there, both parties professed to be advocating different sets of principles, and to be
