FOR
Coughs! Colds!! Consumption!!!
THORN'S PULMONARY CANDY.
THIS pleasant and certain cure for coughs and colds goes ahead of all the preparations now or ever offered to the public. The use of it is so great that the proprietor has some difficulty in keeping a supply for the increasing demand. Medical agencies, groceries, druggists, coffee houses, and even bars on steamboats, keep a supply on hand. It is called for every where, and will sell in any place. The reason is this every one who has a cough or cold by eating a few sticks find themselves cured, as it were, by magic. Persons at a distance, by remitting the money, post paid, to the subscriber, will be attended to. For sale by the single stick, 6¼ cents; five sticks for 25 cents; and at wholesale by WM. THORN, Druggist, 53, Market street, where a general assortment of Drugs and Medicines may always be found. j24.

☞IRON CITY HOTEL,☜
FIFTH STREET,
Next door to the Exchange Bank, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Jacob Boston, Proprietor,
RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken this well known establishment, and has had it thoroughly repaired in all its departments; and it is now fitted up in a style inferior to none in the city. Epicures, and all fond of good eating, will find his larder bounteously supplied with all the necessaries and luxuries the market can afford. It will be the aim and pride of the proprietor to keep his eating department well stored, and in a manner suited to the taste of the most fastidious.
To the lovers of good liquors, too, he can without flattery to himself, offer as good and well furnished a BAR as is kept in the western country. The choicest wines and best of stronger liquors will always be kept in store, for the accommodation of those who may favor him with a call.
His facilities for accommodating the traveling public generally, will be found equal to any in the city. The Stable is airy and capacious, and the best attention will be given to the horses of those putting up at his house.

DENNING'S FIRE PROOF IRON CHESTS.
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22, 1842.
J Denning: On Friday, the 30th of last month, about 9 o'clock at night, the Planing, Grooving, and Sash Manufactory, owned by Guy, Dilworth & Co., with a large quantity of dressed and undressed lumber, was all consumed by fire.
The Iron Safe which I bought of you some time back was in the most exposed situation during the fire, and was entirely red hot. I am pleased to inform you it was opened at the close of the fire, and all books, papers, &c., saved;—this is the best recommendation I can give of the utility of your safes.

"I have every where maintained that in adjusting a tariff for revenue, discriminations ought to be made for protection."—Clay's letter to Cope.

REVERSE.

"Duties shall be laid without reference to protection. [The original compromise bill.] There is no necessity of protection for protection."—Henry Clay.

"We must reject both the doctrines of free trade and a high and exhorbitant tariff. All parties ought to be satisfied with a tariff for revenue, and discriminations for protection."—Clay's speech at Raleigh.

A NATIONAL BANK.

"I believe the establishment of a Bank of the United States is required"—Clay's Speech at Raleigh.

REVERSE.

"We are not empowered by the Constitution to renew the charter of the bank."—Clay in 1811.

THE TARIFF.

"But the duty never becomes an integral part of the price."—Mallory's Life of Clay, vol. 2, page 38.

REVERSE

"It may be taken as a rule that the duty upon an article forms a portion of its price."—Vol 2, p. 110.

DIRECT TAXATION.

"Who has the temerity to propose, in time of peace to raise revenue by direct taxation."—Vol. 2, p. 544.

REVERSE.

"I was opposed to a total repeal of the internal revenue."—Vol 1, p 100.

RE-ANNEXATION OF TEXAS.

"I am wholly opposed to the annexation of Texas to the Union."—Substance of Clay's letter, May 1844.

REVERSE.

"Personally I have no objection to the annexation of Texas—I should be glad see it."—Ib July, 1844.

Theatrical on Dits.—It is running round town that the celebrated Taglioni is about making us a visit. The terms are not yet decided on, and the period of her arrival is not therefore determined; but we shall, in all probability, see her before Christmas. Really, the United States seems determined to become the great rendezvous for the celebrated artists of Europe. They can make money in Europe, but to cross the Atlantic fires their ambition, and they set off with the same adventurous determination that carried Napoleon over the Alps. Of Taglioni's success there can be no question, of course, and we await her arrival with impatience.

It is currently reported, also, that our distinguished tragedian, Mr. Edwin Forrest, proposes paying a visit to Europe. Whether he has decided to play or not, it is not stated. Propositions of a flattering nature have lately been made him from abroad, but he seeks a temporary relief from the arduous toils of his profession amid the delightful distractions of European life. A cordial reception, we know, awaits him from the fashionable and literary world of London and Paris, and if he should decide upon appearing there, as we sincerely hope he may, a brilliant success beyond a doubt awaits him. His great histrionic powers are vividly remembered in London, and this time, it he plays, he will not have to contend with the most powerful opposition that any actor ever struggled against. Forrest had to play against Macready, Kemble and Vandenhoff, who all appeared together at Convent Garden, and who played at eight shillings, while Forrest filled Drury Lane at seven. Garrick never underwent such a test as this, and that Forrest kept his ground against it and filled the town with wonder. Macready never played better than at that time, and all London was interested in the friendly rivalry of these distinguished actors. [N Y. Republic.

Another instance of Algerine Mercy—The following is an extract of a letter from a responsible individual at Providence, to a friend in this city. If our citizens desire more proof of the cruel oppression of the tyrant rulers of Rhode Island, let them read—

This correspondent says, "The inspectors have refused the repeated application of Mr Dorr, his (Gov. D's) father and his counsel either to allow him so much as one breath of fresh air, or exercise in the prison yard, though he is admitted to be very infirm, and the law of the state authorises such indulgences. They refuse peremptorily his counsel to see him in regard to a writ of error, though they could do so without violating any law.

They have allowed prisoners the privilege of walking in the yard after they have lost their intellect, and they say in so many words, that when Mr Dorr is in that situation they will allow him the same privilege."

Millerism in Boston.—According to the Boston papers, the spirit of infatuation was running riot among the proselytes to Millerism in that city, on Thursday. At noon the Tabernacle was crowded with men, women and children, presenting a singular scene of religious infatuation. As much (says the Democrat) as the Millerites may have been charged with insincerity, we cannot doubt, after looking at the crowd now assembled in the Tabernacle, and listening to their prayers, exhortations and hallelujahs, coming as they appear to do, from their very souls, we say we doubt their sincerity as little as we do their most singular infatuation. They have fixed upon four o'clock this afternoon for the "COMING OF CHRIST." The world is to end this day, at 4 o'clock, they most firmly believe —and they are preparing their souls and bodies for that great event, and for taking their final leave of terra firma, in their great ascension. Some of their exhortations, though honest, partake a little of the ludicrous, and provoked a smile from "both saint and sinner." After the frenzied congregation had been nearly the whole day in an agony of expectation to 'go up,' just before the hour appointed for the consummation of their hopes, it was announced from the pulpit that the denouement would not take place till the 22d inst.—Whether the deluded dupes were most disappointed or relieved by this "let up" to the world, does not appear in the papers which furnish the foregoing ludicrous, yet melancholy circumstances.

☞A man somewhere in the great Alabama Cane-brake, having concluded to start a new paper, leads off with the following paragraph, by way of showing what he can do and making a formal declaration of his "principles:"—Ev. Mirror.

Beatles—We approach this very delicate subject with great awe. We have no disposition to quarrel with the ladies upon mere matters of form, much less to speak harshly of things behind their backs. We know that a large portion of the fair sex have already got their backs up on the subject, from which we reason a posteriori, that we must handle the matter very gingerly.
