

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES K. POLK, OF TENNESSEE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEO. M. DALLAS, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

SENATORIAL ELECTORS, WILSON WANDOLLS, of Allegheny, ASA DIMOCK, of Susquehanna.

- DISTRICT ELECTORS, 1 district George P. Leland, Philadelphia, 2 do CHRISTOPHER KERR, do, 3 do WILLIAM H. SAUER, do, 4 do JOHN HILL, do, 5 do SAMUEL E. LEXER, Montgomery, 6 do SAMUEL C. LEB, Lehigh, 7 do JOHN PETERSON, do, 8 do N. W. SHERIDAN, Lancaster, 9 do WILLIAM HENDERSON, Berks, 10 do CHARLES G. STUBBS, Northampton, 11 do SAMUEL B. RAY, Columbia, 12 do JOHN B. WATSON, do, 13 do GEORGE C. WATSON, do, 14 do NATHAN P. FLETCHER, Dauphin, 15 do WILLIAM H. SAUER, do, 16 do JAMES WOODMAN, Lancaster, 17 do JOHN HORTON, do, 18 do HENRY A. BROWN, do, 19 do J. W. MAYER, do, 20 do WILLIAM PATTERSON, Washington, 21 do ANDREW B. BARK, Allegheny, 22 do JOHN M. WELLS, Mercer, 23 do CHRISTOPHER KERR, do, 24 do ROBERT C. C. ALLEN, do.

THE SPIRIT OF FREEDOM.—In all worldly contests, whenever the whig leads, he is to be thought of as the victor. It is not to be thought that the people may triumph, they give way to their passions and openly declare that if they cannot succeed by fair means they will accomplish their purpose by force and bloodshed. This was the burden of the speeches made by Graves, the man who killed Clay, in 1840, and in the present campaign we find some of the whig orators using the same arguments. S. S. PERRY, one of Mr. Clay's most intimate friends, used the following language in a speech at the Nashville Convention: "The night before was a fearful and terrible one. The people had come up to fight the enemies of their country with weapons of iron and steel, and we saw the fall of many a brave man. This is the language of the 'claw and order party.' They appeal to the people to place them in power, but in the same breath they tell the people that if they do not grant their demands, they will 'employ the real weapons of war' to attain their object."

SEIT FOR DAMAGE.—It is said that the whigs in the eastern part of the State, talk of proposing the Delegates from this city, who are attending the Convention, to be removed as a professional man, that the western counties would send a delegate over the mountains with 30,000 majority. Relying on this promise they did not say as many things as they would have done if the promise had not been given, and they believe it was the cause of their defeat.

ANOTHER.—We understand that General Markle's friends intend to advise him to sue the editor of the Gazette for libeling him on after qualification for the office of Governor, than that of having "killed an Indian and drank spiced-bush tea." The General denies this and a most atrocious slander, and if the fifteen whigs do not make some suitable apology for the conduct of their organ, he will make their editor pay dearly for the coalition insult.

THE COALITION IN PHILADELPHIA.—On the morning of the election, the United States Gazette said that the coalition was "intentionally false," and repelled with especial indignation the charge that the whigs were abandoned to J. J. Moore, in the 1st District. It is certain that the bargain was struck between the whigs and natives before Tuesday morning. Can it be possible that the editor of the N. Y. Gazette, a prominent leader of the whigs, knew nothing of it? The did know of it, for he would measure the stephen's hypocrisy and falsehood which would induce him to go forth and fall a victim of the bargain that which he has made!

WHOLE OR PART.—The question whether Lewis C. Wells, the newly elected Native Congressman, will take his seat at Washington, or a call in the Pennsylvania, will soon be decided. The Grand Jury has found a bill against him for inciting to "treason, riot and murder." The whigs, in order to elect this man, most traitorously abandoned a worthy and decent candidate of their own. Does this not afford another proof that the whigs are the "law and order party." What a glorious reformer this Lewis is! Will not the efforts of men like him, keep the elective franchise pure and unadulterated? We never remember that a man indicted for "treason, riot and murder" was elected to Congress by that "foreign influence" which Levin and his party so much dread. The honor of sending a man more than suspected of these high crimes was reserved for the "American Republicans."

ALL THE PARTY.—Sam'l J. Peters, the chairman of the whig Committee of arrangements for the Bator Rouge Convention, issues his programme in the N. O. Allegheny of Sunday morning, with a notice, requesting the whigs to meet at 9 o'clock on the same morning, and proceed to Canal street, where at 9 o'clock the procession will be formed under JULIAN NAYLOR, Esq., Grand Marshal. The route of the procession through the city is then prescribed, from the place of meeting to the levee, where the streets will be in readiness to receive the delegates to Bator Rouge. "We hope the pious of McClellan and his fellow-champions will endorse the shock which this 'immoral and profane' behaviour of their conjurers, the Clay whigs of New Orleans, have given it. Who can doubt Clay when he says the whigs are the 'Law and Order party'?"

PRESIDENT OF TEXAS.—It is stated on good authority, that JONES, the Antian-annexation candidate, was elected President of Texas, by an overwhelming majority. This we suppose, settles the annexation question, and the whigs who have been betting and opposing annexation, must now stop that hypocritical game. The Liberty men will now only have to decide whether they will sanction by their vote, who hold ideas advanced by CLAY, that slavery is sanctioned by human law and "SANCTIFIED" by the law of Scripture.

THE "NATIVE" are already engaged in the matter of the next majority. We hear of some half dozen gentlemen mentioned as anxious spectators for the nomination. They are all whigs, of course, and feeling that they cannot succeed under their old party name, they expect to be more fortunate by drawing the excitement of Nativeism to their aid.

PENNSYLVANIA

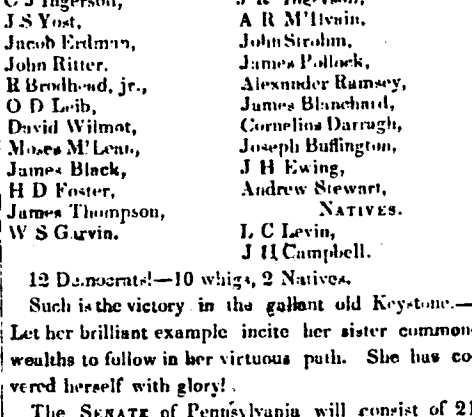

THE GRAND COON-SKINNING IN PENNSYLVANIA!

The following are the majorities in all the counties of Pennsylvania. All marked with (*) are official. It will seem that, according to this table, SHUNK IS ELECTED BY 4496.

Table with columns: COUNTY, SHEKES, COUNTIES, MARKS. Lists counties like Allegheny, Adams, Berks, etc., with corresponding numbers.

OHIO!

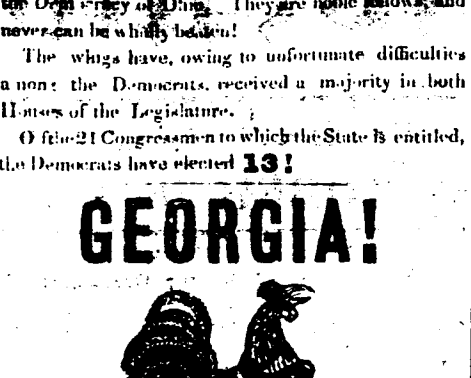

THE COON "SCOTCHED!"

He will be killed in November! The Ohio Statesman of Oct. 14, brings us the following intelligence from Ohio. No state in the Union has a more fearless and unflinching Democracy than Ohio. Considering all the circumstances under which they fought the battle, they have done wonders. The Statesman says: "There are four democratic counties to hear from which will give from 700 to 1000 majority. Mr. Blair, therefore, is elected by a about a thousand votes. The race has been close, and we sincerely regret the loss of our noble and worthy T. D. But he has no regrets for himself—he did his duty and is doing it still. If there are any who have renounced by their local difficulties, let them emulate his noble example and regain their lost ground."

The democrats have increased their vote since 1840 THIRTY THOUSAND, and run down a majority of TWENTY-THREE THOUSAND. The same average gains will sweep the Union for Polk and Dallas. Let Ohio go with her sister States, and take her stand in the democratic fold. Every letter we get, every person we meet, says they can do better on the first of November! Polk on the work, one and all.

So our Friends Abroad. Let no one believe that we are not going into the fight for Polk and Dallas on the 1st of November, with renewed spirit. A letter from our noble T. D., last night, says, "Whether I am elected or defeated, I go into the fight for the 1st of November."

GEORGIA!

Georgia Election.

Oh, poor Harry Clay, Oh, poor Harry Clay, Oh, poor Harry Clay, For so the people say.

The whig papers, with their accustomed accuracy, have been chiming the Georgia election as a whig triumph, and those who are silly enough to depend on such sources as the fast-to-and-american-for their information, have been led to give a Clay majority.

The result in the 7,000. The result in the 7,000. The result in the 7,000.

Table with columns: Dem., Whig. Lists vote counts for various counties like 1st district, 2nd district, etc.

Dem. maj. 1,883. The Democrats have elected Messrs Cobb, Lumpkin, and Hamilton, and in all probability Mr. Jones. The whigs have elected Messrs Stephens, Tompkins, and Moore, and may possibly elect Mr. King.

THE PRESS AND "IRON HORSE." We extract the following from the elaborate and very interesting Report of Rev G. D. Abbott, on the progress of the Press: "No roll-calling could contemplate the present position of the United States, without a full conviction that it is without parallel in the history of nations that we live in a period with great events, that the press for us as yet and beyond ourselves, that may in our hands be the history of our country, and that we are called upon to do our duty as citizens, and to do it with a full and free press."

THE PRESS AND "IRON HORSE." We extract the following from the elaborate and very interesting Report of Rev G. D. Abbott, on the progress of the Press: "No roll-calling could contemplate the present position of the United States, without a full conviction that it is without parallel in the history of nations that we live in a period with great events, that the press for us as yet and beyond ourselves, that may in our hands be the history of our country, and that we are called upon to do our duty as citizens, and to do it with a full and free press."

THE PRESS AND "IRON HORSE." We extract the following from the elaborate and very interesting Report of Rev G. D. Abbott, on the progress of the Press: "No roll-calling could contemplate the present position of the United States, without a full conviction that it is without parallel in the history of nations that we live in a period with great events, that the press for us as yet and beyond ourselves, that may in our hands be the history of our country, and that we are called upon to do our duty as citizens, and to do it with a full and free press."

THE PRESS AND "IRON HORSE." We extract the following from the elaborate and very interesting Report of Rev G. D. Abbott, on the progress of the Press: "No roll-calling could contemplate the present position of the United States, without a full conviction that it is without parallel in the history of nations that we live in a period with great events, that the press for us as yet and beyond ourselves, that may in our hands be the history of our country, and that we are called upon to do our duty as citizens, and to do it with a full and free press."

COLONIZATION—THE OREGON

The emigration to Oregon, which took place in the spring of the present year, is one of the most remarkable events of our time. No enterprise of this kind, of equal magnitude or difficulty, has ever been undertaken with equal rapidity and success.

In fact, whether these people design to stay, they have gone to form a new empire, or to return to the shores of the Pacific. The emigrants made their rendezvous at Fort Independence, on the western frontier of Missouri, in April, provided for a march of five or six months through a country unexplored, except by a few traders, and a party of the party had to be left behind, and a party of the party had to be left behind.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

From the time of the emigration, the whig papers have been full of reports of the success of the party, and of the success of the party, and of the success of the party.

SHUNK'S CLAIM

By virtue of a deed of the District Court of Allegheny County, made on the 10th day of October, 1846, the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

All the right, title, interest and claim of Samuel Baird, in and to, all the following described lots, situated in the City of Pittsburgh, on Monday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1846, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

CASTLE SPOONER!

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.

Mr. ADAMS is kindly invited to this arena and will make his appearance on the 1st of November.