Grand Design of the Prophet.—A correspondent of the New Bedord Bulletin, after stating that the recent murder of Joe Smith has been followed by a dispersion of his followers, gives the following interesting items: Mrs Joe Smith, it is said, has lost all confidence (if she ever had any) in the Mormon faith. She will soon retire to some secure situation, undoubtedly the richest lady in the West. Joe had been a massing money for several years, for the purpose of eventually going to Jerusalem, intending to issue a proclamation calling in the Jews, over whom he was to be head till the return of Christ upon the earthwhich event he believed would take place 45 years With reference to this expedition he was crowned "King of Israel" in 1844, by the Council of Fifty, de-nominated the "Ancient of Days." The Fifty were all aworn to secrecy. I had the fact from one who assisted at the commution—divulged since Joe's death. This was the prophet's grand design; and had it been generally known, would, perhaps, have saved our State from the disgrace and intumy of perpetrating so foul a nurder. This facts affords a key to certain movements of the prophet, which are otherwise wholly in-The Millerite and his Lawyer .- A lawyer in Boston received the other day a very queer letter from a debtor client, who had become a convert to the sec and adve t faith. The client states in the first place that he is poor, that he owes the lawyer the debt, and that the world will undoubtedly come to an end on the 22d inst , but he feels that he cannot die in peace unless the lawyer will forgive him the debt. If assured by the lawyer that he would release him from the demands he would be fully prepared to meet the second coming of Christ on the 221 inst. The lawyer wrote, in answer to the letter that if the world should surecome to an end on the 221, he would forgive the debt, but if the world went on as usual after the 22d, he should expect his client to come to his office and pay him at least 50 cents on the dollar. Dan Tucker .- This famous song has arrived in Greenock, Scotland, and is sung in the public streets after the following fashion: "Get out of the wa' ould Dan Tuokay, You're two late till coom till soopay. How they do things in France.-The Post Offices in France last year received 114,200.000 letters, of which 3.200,000 remained unclaimed, and distributed 60,000,000 of printed paper. The amount of post-age was 43,969,200f. about £1.820,000. THE UNEQUALLED JOHN McCLOSKEY, PROPRIETOR.
