PITTSBURGH, PA. THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1844. On our outside form will be found a story, en titled 'The lady that was Too Fashionable'-Change of Customs'-Poetry, &cc. Rembember sale of Bankrupt Property, at M'Kenna's Auction Mart, corner of 2d and Wood streets, on Friday next, 25th instant, at 10 o'clock,

THE GOVERNOR ELECT-FRANCIS R SHUNK For some days past a romor obtained direculation, that the Governor elect. Mr Shunk, was on his way to visit Philadelphia. We learn that he is not expected to be in Philadelphia during this visit east of the mountains. It appears he left Pattsburgh with the intention of being present at a mass meeting of the Democracy of Berks county, which was to have been held on the 19 h inst, but which had been postponed until Wednesday, the 23d inst. As soon as it was known in Philadelphia that an invitation had been seat him by our neighbors of Berks, and that it was thought he would accept it, an invitation was sent by the Democratic Executive Committee of Philadelphia, and perhaps other committees, inviting him to visit Philadelphia. These invitations passed him on the road, and were not therefore received by him. On Saturday we understand a delegation went up t Downingtown, at which place he was expected, to in-form him of the previous invitation, and it he accept-ed it, to escort him down. Not having received any pravious notice of these invitations, he had made arangements to visit Westchester and Norristown, and that part of Montgomery where he was been and passed all the carlier years of his life, and thence on to leading to be present at the mass meeting on Wedneedby. This arrangement prevented him from visiting Philadelphia to make any stay that would allow This arrangement prevented him from visithis friends in this quarter an opportunity to pay their respects to him. It is understood, however, that he tends to visit Philadelphia before his inauguration, to stay several days among us, when all will have an opportunity to see the face, and take the hund, and hear the voice of an honest man.—Pennsylvanian.

LOSS OF THE STEAMER EDWIN HICKMAN, By Fire, on Sunday last, 13th inst.

IMMENSE LOSS OF PROPERTY! We learn that the steamboat Edwin Hickman was destroyed by fire on Sunday night last, while lying at Cairo. The boat and entire cargo is a total loss. The fire originated in the hold by the mate falling with a lighted candle in his hand against some bales of oakum, which immediately took fire and burned with such fierce rapidity, that he had some difficulty in making his escape. In two minutes the whole boat was enveloped in flames. The money and books of the boat were partially saved, but of the bills of lading were all destroyed. The crew of the boat lost all their clothing. Capt. Irwin endeavored to have the boat scuttled, but as her cargo was burning she lighted up so rapidly as to render it impossible for him to succeed. We understand that the losses of our merchants are principally covered by insurance in the different offices of this city. Lexington and at the East-Louisville Courier Oct.

J. D. WILLIAMS No 28 Fifth street. Medicated Vapor Bath. COPE OF A LETTER FROM DRS. LAWRENCE AND

HANRICKSON. New Lebanon, State of New York. WORTHY FRIEND:—Having made a thorough trial of the Medicated Vavor Bath for four months past, in our societies in New Lebanon and Watervliet, we think it but justice to state, that we consider it a valuable improvement in the healing art. Its power in reducing both chronic and acute inflamation, also in removing spasms, is certainly very great. In cases of obstructed perspiration, it is unquestionably the safest and best remedy that we have ever seen. Several persons in our society, who were scarcely free from a oct 23. catarrhal affection during most of the winter months for several years past, have found permanent relief by using the Bath a few times; and the predisposition to take cold, as it is commonly termed, seems to be wholly removed. Obstructed perspiration, is certainly in our changeable climate, one of the most fruiful sources of disease, and any remedy that is capable of res moving the predisposition to it, must be considered a great blessing to mankind; and as such we do not besiommend the Medicated Vapor Bath.
