

The North Dublin Union, have vacated their seats on the board, in consequence of the commissioning of the same salary as the Protestant ministers.

The Liberator has died on Wednesday, 28th of November, at a grand residence in Limerick, on his way from Derry to Dublin.

Baltimore fair, the greatest in Ireland, has not been so well attended this year as usual. The price of wheat varied from 27 to 44s.

The Repeal Association held its usual weekly meeting on the 7th inst. Maurice O'Connell, M. P., was the principal speaker.

O'Neill Dean launched into a general treatise on the repeal question, and quoted as a proof of the advance of the cause observations which appeared in the Wanderer of the 5th inst. in an article entitled "The Repeal of the Union."

Mr. O'Connell in Derry.—The Kerry Examiner contains the following:—"The Liberator, who received with enthusiasm everywhere on his route from Dublin, could not have been more cordially welcomed than on his entrance, and all through his native mountains, to Derry, where he was received with the same cordiality. He was accompanied for two days by Hillgrove, the hospitable mansion of his relative and agent, John Finnegan, Esq., with his son John and lady, and a number of friends, the Right Honorable David Pigo, where a large number of the neighboring gentry, were also entertained.

On Monday morning he left, with his splendid pack of baggage, and hunted on his way to the Abbey. Within several miles of his lovely spot he was met by tens of thousands of the people, showing their joyous welcome to their liberator and martyr. Here the mountains were literally alive with banners being waved by the people from the shores of Barrow and Bally Bay, and in yachts and boats, accompanied by bands of music, and in their own dories, returned from an unjust imprisonment, but all united in shouting the words of the hymn, "The Liberator is here."

At the head of the canal, where it joins the river Liffey, the 400-robed up with such vigour completely the fields and cottages adjoining.

The orchards in the neighborhood of the city suffered very much from the frost, and a considerable extent of the crops was destroyed. The water was very low in the river, and the boats were unable to pass. The water was very low in the river, and the boats were unable to pass.

At the head of the canal, where it joins the river Liffey, the 400-robed up with such vigour completely the fields and cottages adjoining.

The orchards in the neighborhood of the city suffered very much from the frost, and a considerable extent of the crops was destroyed. The water was very low in the river, and the boats were unable to pass.

The Daily Morning Post.
PUBLISHED BY W. H. SMITH, EDITOR.
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21.
FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES K. POLK,
OF TENNESSEE.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GEO. M. DALLAS,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.
SENATORIAL ELECTORS.
WILSON MCANDREWS, of Allegheny,
ASA DIMOCK, of Susquehanna.
DISTRICT ELECTORS.
1. District of George F. Lusk, Philadelphia.
2. do Charles F. Smith, do.
3. do William H. Davis, do.
4. do John H. Smith, do.
5. do James H. Smith, do.
6. do James H. Smith, do.
7. do James H. Smith, do.
8. do James H. Smith, do.
9. do James H. Smith, do.
10. do James H. Smith, do.
11. do James H. Smith, do.
12. do James H. Smith, do.
13. do James H. Smith, do.
14. do James H. Smith, do.
15. do James H. Smith, do.
16. do James H. Smith, do.
17. do James H. Smith, do.
18. do James H. Smith, do.
19. do James H. Smith, do.
20. do James H. Smith, do.
21. do James H. Smith, do.
22. do James H. Smith, do.
23. do James H. Smith, do.
24. do James H. Smith, do.

CLAY'S AMBITION.—Whatever may have been the object of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff, it is now clear that the Tariff is a failure. The whole public course of HENRY CLAY proves that he has been one ruling, controlling, and absolute motive.

All eyes turned to the Tariff, and the Tariff is a failure. The whole public course of HENRY CLAY proves that he has been one ruling, controlling, and absolute motive.

One ennobling object which he pursued with steady and undeviating eye, and that is, the Tariff. For many years, he sought to make himself conspicuous with the friends of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff, and the Tariff is a failure.

When Mr. CLAY only meant to score his northern friends in his support, by this course, it is hard to tell—but they took it for granted that he meant to do more. He has done more than he intended to do.

When Mr. CLAY only meant to score his northern friends in his support, by this course, it is hard to tell—but they took it for granted that he meant to do more. He has done more than he intended to do.

When Mr. CLAY only meant to score his northern friends in his support, by this course, it is hard to tell—but they took it for granted that he meant to do more. He has done more than he intended to do.

MASS MEETING.
A Mass Meeting of the Democrats of the City of Boston, was held at the City Hall, on Wednesday evening, the 20th inst. The meeting was held at seven o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the friends of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff.

The meeting was held at seven o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the friends of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff.

The meeting was held at seven o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the friends of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff.

The meeting was held at seven o'clock, and was attended by a large number of the friends of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff.

PROCEEDINGS IN SELECT COUNCIL.
October 23, 1844.
Present—Messrs. Brooks, Day, Geary, Kerr, Kincaid, McCracken, Ogden, Sawyer, and Mr. Bakewell.

A petition for paving Grant, from Fourth to Sixth street, was referred to a committee on Streets, Grand Canal, and Public Buildings, consisting of Messrs. Kincaid, McCracken, Ogden, Sawyer, and Mr. Bakewell.

A petition for paving Grant, from Fourth to Sixth street, was referred to a committee on Streets, Grand Canal, and Public Buildings, consisting of Messrs. Kincaid, McCracken, Ogden, Sawyer, and Mr. Bakewell.

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.
The Repeal Association held its usual weekly meeting on the 7th inst. Maurice O'Connell, M. P., was the principal speaker.

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.
The Repeal Association held its usual weekly meeting on the 7th inst. Maurice O'Connell, M. P., was the principal speaker.

REPEAL ASSOCIATION.
The Repeal Association held its usual weekly meeting on the 7th inst. Maurice O'Connell, M. P., was the principal speaker.

SOMETHING FOR THE FRIENDS OF PROTECTION TO THINK ABOUT.
Will not the establishment of a National Bank destroy the protective features of the present Tariff?

It is one of the most remarkable specimens of protection to the friends of the Tariff and the duties on the Tariff.

THE ELECTION LAW.
We reproduce the following extracts from the Election Law, and commend them to the careful attention of those whom they most concern.

It is the duty of every elector to exercise his right of suffrage in a lawful and proper manner.

THE FALSE RETURNS.
The Gazette refers to the notice of the false returns which the whigs intend to send to New York to effect the election.

The whigs intend to send to New York to effect the election.

AW ORDINANCE.
Declaring and fixing the Grade of Pine street.

BE IT ORDAINED, &c., That the grade of Pine street, from its intersection with Penn street, shall have a descent of one and one-half inches to every ten feet.

NEW CHAP BOOKS.
GEORGE F. DIMM.
No. 106, Market Street, Philadelphia.

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he is receiving and selling an entirely new stock of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS.

STANDARD FAMILY MEDICINE.
It is rapidly spreading the use of the many nostrums, which have so long imposed upon the common sense of the people.

STANDARD FAMILY MEDICINE.