D. B. Sheble, Steamboat Agent and Commissio MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1844. Mr. J. DAVI'S CONCERT .- We merely think it re quisite to remind our readers that the Concert takes place this evening at Duquesne Hall, 3rd street. It will doubtless be attended by all lovers of good music, who, we have every reason to believe, will be much gratified by the evenrng's entertainment.

Belfast, Elibert, Wheeling. Orpheus, Dales. Cincinnati Gov. Shunk at York. GREAT GATHERING OF THE DEMOCRACY. The Governor elect surved in York on Friday ovening, and was received, says the Gazette, with enthusiastic manifestations of respect and affection. He Utica, Hemphill St Louis. Mossenger, Perry, St Louis. Archer, Woodward, Cincinnati. was met by a large number of citizens in carriages and on house-back about six miles from town, and corted by them to his lodgings at the residence of Henry Welsh, Esq. As soon as his arrival was known, an anxions were hindrids to pay their respects to him, that he yielded to the general wish to repair to the spacious court room, which was crowded, us soon as thrown open, by a dense mass of Democrats eager to grasp the hand of "honest Old Shunk," to whose Clipper, Crooks, Cincinnati, Columbiana, Smith, do election they had contributed by their suffrages. The Guvernor briefly and pertinently expressed his thank for the cordial welcome he hid r ceivedby addressing to those assembled some well-timeromarks, in English and German, in refutation of som of the falsehoods that had been used against him du ring the late contest-and urged, in un impressi manner, upon all the duty of giving the enemy "one fire more" on the 1st of November. At the close of his remarks, hundreds flocked around him and were introduced-for each he had a word of kindness, and all left him favorable impressed by his plain, unaffect-cd and unpretending manner.
