The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 7, 1844. Fault Tages .- We would invite attention to F. L Snowden's advertisement of Trees, Plants, Ste., and would mention that this is the season for planting.

Scoggan, jaster to Queen Elizabeth, borrowed £500 of the Queen, and not being able to return them, con-trived to find out the time when the queen went out, as she was obliged to pass by his house. He had a cof for made, and having let his family into the secret, he hid himself in it, and had all his friends invited to his funeral. The queen, happening to pass is the moment they were carrying the corpse with ceremony, inquired who was dead. "Madam," they replied, "it is your devoted servant, Scoggan." "What!" she exclaimed, "he is dead, and I was not even informed of his being ill! The poor man owed me £500, but I forgive him the debt with all my heart." Scoggan instantly rose up in his coffin, and cried out, "I thank your majesty; the favor she bestowed on me is so agreeable that it has brought me to life again."

If Frelinghuysen shall be defeated, his defeat will be pointed to herentier, by those who may be in-terested in doing so, us conclusive evidence that it is ille and silly to appeal to the moral sense of the tion. - Whig paper. His defeat will be pointed to as a just rebuke of the hypocrisy of a party which puts up for president a man who will not renounce his propensity for a vice which Fredinghuysen denounces as a "heaven daring sia."

THE MARKETS. SUNDAY MORNING, Oct. 27, 1844. The non-arrival of the steamer's news yearerday, caused some disappointment amongst the cotton dealers, but it had no effect on the market. The sales amounted to 2500 bales, including a list of 1200 at 53c., taken chiefly on English and Mexican accounts. Holders continue to supply the market liberally, but are not pressing sales.

The weather continues pleasant, and very favorable for the transaction of our-door business. The market semains bare of Sugar, and we have no sales to record excepting a few libits, old, at former prices. The Flour market is drooping under the influence of heavier arrivals, and a limited demand. We quote Ohio, $4 124, and extra brands of St. Louis, $4 25a $4 40 per bbl. Pork is very firm, and prices are tonding upwards. We quote Mess, $9 60a$9 75, M. O. $8 75; Prime, $7 00a$7 124 per bbl. We have no change to notice in other Prov.

FREE LECTURES. TO ROFESSOR PORTER, of the City of New York, would respectfully announce to the Ladies and Gentlemes of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, that he will deliver two gratinous lectures in each city, this week, on a now system of arithmetic and mathematics. By this system all of our business calculations are performed by ONE RULE ONLY. Examples that would in common arithmetic require 6 or 8 statements and some three or four hundred figures, may be wrought by this system with only one statement without multiplying figures, and in almost a single turn of the pen 0 figures and produce the same result. Frof. P. will solve problems on the black-board, under the various rules used in mercantile transactions, thereby enabling the audience to judge of its merits. Proonal Gentlemen, Merchants, Manufacturers, Mechanics and the public generally are invited to attend.

Dear Sir—Having had occasion to witness the of my duty to make a brief statement in order that others that are or may be afflicted with the same complaint may be benefitted by the same remedy.

He was attacked with inflammation in the left lobe of the lungs in March 1843, attended with acute pain great difficulty of breathing, and a severe cough, which proceded rapidly to suppuration: and not withstanding the use and application of the best remedies prescribed by our authors; the complaint in a few days began exhibit evident symptoms of ulceration.

In this distressing stage of the complaint, I had recourse to Dr Duncan's Expectorant Remedy for consumption, which had the effect of checking the disease mediately, and in a few days the pain ceased, th breathing became free and easy, the cough left him, and the expectoration subsided, the consequences which was that in using six bottles he has recovered nis health, and is restored to his family. I do heraby certify the above to be true statement my case as far as comes within my knowledge. Mt Vercon, May 28, 1844. Mt Verzon, may 20, 25.
