PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 8, 1844. yesterday, had an endorsement stating that the whole official vote from all the counties, when our readers

wete of Ohio county showed a democratic gain of 135. will see that the old Keystone has done her duty nobly. This is the county of which the whigs were boasting three days since that they had a gain of 400! Nothing can equal the accuracy of the election returns published by the whige!

that Clay will get the State, we would just mention Bedford, that the democrats of Wheeling are betting that Polk will carry Virginia by 5000! If any of our whig friends Bucks, are anxious to stake money on the Old Dominion, we Crawford, would advise them to pay a visit to Wheeling, and Chester, they will soon be accommodated.

ELECTION NEWS .- The papers in New York and Philadelphia, describe the anxiety and excitement on Cambria, the subject of the Elections as most intense in those Clarion, wittes, on Sunday last. During all that day, it is said. Dauphin, shere were large crowds around the bulletin boards of Erie, the various newspaper offices, watching with absorbing Fayette, interest, for any thing and every thing like fresh inteltigence. By the way we were frequently amused, during the time the news of the Governor's election was Indiana, coming in, to see the feverish anxiety manifested by hun- Juniata, dreds who never took any interest in election returns before, and did not know exactly where to look for them. Every vehicle that looked as if it might have Lehigh, come twenty miles, was hailed by anxious news-hunt- Lyc ers, and any thing that looked like a stage was sure to Montgomery, have a crowd after it, eager in the "pursuit of know- Mifflin, Unilying Wayne, honor to the honest, steadfast old "Keystone!"

Gav. SHUNK .-- We neglected to mention that Mr. Shunk returned home from his Eastern tour in time to deposite his ballot for Polk and Dallas. We do wonder how the pitiful scamps who got up the many slanders upon Mr. Shunk, now that they are foiled in their rascally purposes, can look in the face the monly and honest old democrat whom they have abused so shamefully. The Governor elect is in fine health and spirits, and seems especially pleased with the present flattering prospect of electing Polk and Dallas.
