THOS. PHILLIPS & WM. H. SMITH, EDITORS. PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14.

The Gazette is consoling its friends in their adversity with all sorts of false and silly stuff. It says they have been benten by "fraudulent and newly " naturalized votes, given by men incapable of judging "intelligibly of the character of the principles and " nature of the measures they opposed or supported." Does not this impudent slander come appropriately from the pen of the editor of the Gazette? We shall mot stop to vindicate the "expability" of those of our adopted citizens who voted for Col. Polk. But we venture to say that not one of them would have the hardihood to proclaim that CLAY "throttled the Taieff." and then vote for CLAY, under pretence of aiding the Tariff. We do not believe that a single man among them could ever be brought to vote for a candidate whom he had denounced as a "debauckee," a "duckist," and "immoral or profane.". Nor do we believe that "fifteen" or fifteen hundred of the most respectable whigs in the country could induce one of them to "yote for CLAY, if he had denounced him as the Gazette had done.

Baltimore gave permission to the democrats, not long since, to elevate a Polk and Dalias flag on the summit of one of the shot towers. As soon as i was done, twenty-eight of the Whig grocers refused to buy any more shot from him, but went to Philadelphia, where they had to pay a cent more per pound, besides the expense of freight. But the cream of the joke is; it turned out that the same Mr McCullough owns the shot factories in Thiladelphia also. Is'nt that capital .- Spirit of the Times.
