BETTER DAYS.

From hapless infancy to hoary age,
Amidst life's ever-changing, devious ways,
The hopes of things to come our minds engage,
And fancy brightly pictures better days.

The toys of childhood, when they're once possess'd,
Lose all the charms which first obtained our praise
And what we thought would make us truly blest,
Remains to be enjoyed in—better days.

The youthful lover, glowing with delight,
To some fair maid his ardent homage pays;
When this bright vision fades before his sight,
And leaves him nought to bless but—better days.

The anxious parent, toiling for the bread
Which to his craving infants hunger stays,
Labors the weary day, then rests his head
And dreams of sweet repose in—better days.

The tottering grandsire hastening to the grave,
Reviews his life; and as he thinks, he prays—
"Great God, be pleased my family to save,
"To meet in happiness and better days."

Thus, from first to last, each pleasure flies—
Eludes our grasp—in sight a moment stays:
Man lives an instant—in an instant dies:
And dying, prays and hopes for better days.

A CONJUGAL REMONSTRANCE.

Our readers may remember a paragraph which stated that the queen felt the greatest alarm at Prince Albert's hunting, from his so frequently falling from his horse. The royal remonstrance was made in verse; we have been fortunate enough to obtain a copy:—

My dear, I really must insist
Upon more prudent courses;
You always now are falling off
Those horrid pacing horses!
I'm sure your sports had better be
As future wholly bounded
To playing with these babes so dear,
By whom we are surrounded.
Let others take the daring step,
And mount the steed majestic—
The father of a family
Should stick to things domestic.
O covet not the coat of red—
The huntsman's glossy light cap,
But be content, Albert, love,
With your own cotton night cap.

Katz's American Anti-Bilious Life Pills.

FOR all diseases originating in a diseased stomach and impure blood These pills which have but recently been introduced to the West, are advancing in the favor of the public with astonishing rapidity.—Very few persons who have given them a trial, are ever willing to make use of any other kind, and adopt them as a Family Medicine. This is the best recommendation that could be given them. They are entirely vegetable and are the most valuable Pills that can be obtained.

Medicated Vapor Bath.

COPY OF A LETTER FROM DRS. LAWRENCE AND HENRICKSON.

New Lebanon, State of New York.

WORTHY FRIEND:—Having made a thorough trial of the Medicated Vapor Bath for four months past, in our societies in New Lebanon and Watervliet, we think it but justice to state, that we consider it a valuable improvement in the healing art. Its power in reducing both chronic and acute inflamation, also in removing spasms, is certainly very great. In cases of obstructed perspiration, it is unquestionably the safest and best remedy that we have ever seen. Several persons in our society, who were scarcely free from a catarrhal affection during most of the winter months for several years past, have found permanent relief by using the Bath a few times; and the predisposition to take cold, as is commonly termed, seems to be wholly removed. Obstructed perspiration, is certainly in our changeable climate, one of the most fruitful sources of disease, and any remedy that is capable of removing the predisposition to it, must be considered a great blessing to mankind; and as such we do not hesitate to recommend the Medicated Vapor Bath.

MUTUAL PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.

THE Allegheny Mutual Insurance Company, commenced issuing policies the 18th May last.

The Policies and applications for Insurance four times exceed the amount its charter required to commence with, creating a fund already sufficient to meet any probable loss that may occur; as is tested by all the reports of well conducted institutions of the kind, and steadily augmenting its capital by the accession of new members.

The terms of Insurance are as favorable as those of any other institution in the city, and its principles need only be known to vastly increase its business and extend its usefulness.

Wholesale Druggists, Grocers, &c.,

WOULD be consulting their own, and the interest of their customers, to a very great extent, by purchasing Spices, Drugs and Dye Woods in the Eastern markets, whole and in sticks, and getting them ground and chipped at the Franklin Manufactory, Second street.

It is not generally known, but nevertheless true, that Drugs and spices sold in the East, are lower in price than whole, of course the profit and cost of grinding must be made up by adulteration; dye woods have at least 15 per cent, and in some cases 25 per cent of water added to them. Now water, dust, cornmeal and flaxseed meal are plenty here, and we can eat them in their purity, if so it pleases us, without paying a pepper price with freight and premium added.

Lal what makes your teeth so unusually white?
Quoth Josh's dulcinia to him t'other night,
To make yourn look so, with a grin, replied Josh,
I've bought you a bottle of Thorn's Tooth Wash,
'Tis the best now in use, as the gentlefolks say,
And since they have tried this, cast all others away.
But to prove it the best to make the teeth shine,
Look again, my dear Sal, at the lustre of mine.
Then try this great tooth wash,
The Teaberry tooth wash,
And see if this tooth wash of Thorn's is not fine.

Having tried Dr "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant tooth washes now in use. DAVID HUNT, Dentist.
Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable.

J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extremely pleasant dentrifice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.

WARRANTED GENUINE.—Dr. William Evans's Campaine Pills.

CERTIFICATES.—Letter from the Hon. Ab'h'm M'Clellan, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress,
WASHINGTON, July 3d, 1838.

SIR—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Campbell county Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazwell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Blountville, Sullivan County East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to act for you as I live near there.

Yours respectfully,
ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.

BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS

These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system: the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or at the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent, or discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.
